INDEPENDENT TICKET. Mr Editor—Be pleased to announce the following gentlemen as candidates for the state legislature, at the approaching election.

A GREAT NUMBER OF VOTERS:

B. Canonge, F. Labatut, Wm. F. Duplessis, B. Marigny, Antonio Ducros, Albert Hart, C. F. Dunnoy.

The northern mail of yesterday furnishes dates from Boston and New York to the 7th, Philadelphia and Baltimore of the 9th, and Charleston to the 14th inclusive. They contain no news of interest.

The city council, in its sitting of Wednesday last, gave permission to Mr. Theodore, the aeronaut of noisy celebrity, to use the public square to give an ascension gratis. It is presumed that it will take place shortly.

The brigantine Ludus, hence for Baltimore, was run foul of on the night of the 2d instant, by the packet ship Virginia, of New York, from Vera Cruz. She was taken into Key West on the 4th, where she was libelled for salvage.

CHARLESTON, April 14.

Foreign Arrivals.—We had two arrivals from Europe yesterday. The ship Pilot, captain Davis, from Havre via Cowes and the Isle of Wight, sailed from the latter on the 8th March, but brought no papers.

The brig Level, capt. Perry, Cadiz arrived yesterday, sailed from Havre on the 10th March. The L. was bound from Havre to Bordeaux, but encountering so severe weather on the coast for several days, bore away for the United States, and intended to make Savannah. When off the latter coast, the L. ran foul of the schr. Pilot, bound from New York to Savannah—carried away her main sail, main boom and boat, and stove part of her stern. After lying by the G. until morning, left her safe for this port. Captain Perry brought no papers or letters.

NEW YORK, April 7.

Mail for New Orleans.—We learn that a daily mail from New Orleans to this city will commence its operations in a few days. The route is the nearest route through the southern states, via Mobile and Lake Pontchartrain, which is navigated with steam boats built for the purpose. In good weather, with no accidental interruptions, this mail will require only twelve days to travel the distance between New Orleans and New York.

LATEST FROM FRANCE & ENGLAND

From the New York Courier and Enquirer, April 5.

Yesterday the packet ship Rhone, Captain Hathaway, arrived from Havre. We have received by her our liberal Paris papers to the 25th February, and of Havre to the first March. Rarely of late has it occurred that European journals, embracing a period of so many days, have been so totally devoid of political news of any interest as those now before us.

On the subject of the 24th section of the twenty four articles agreed on for the separation of Belgium from Holland, nothing further seems to have occurred. In Holland, however, the same warlike spirit still prevails; extraordinary encouragement has been held out by that government to recruits both for the navy and army; and the Russian Diplomatic agent, who, it was presumed, visited the Hague for the purpose of inducing the Monarch to enter into the views of the other powers, nothing more is said than that he dined with the king.

The Reform Bill is making great progress in the committee of the house of commons. At the last dates nothing of moment remained for debate, except the enfranchisement of the suburbs of London. It was anticipated that the bill would be sent to the lords about 12th or 14th March. In the Lords, the great trial of strength will take place—it is again asserted that 26 opposition peers have changed their minds, and will support the bill. The London Courier says, "if we may believe the assertions of those who have never yet deceived us, and who must know the real state of the question, success in the Lords is certain. At this moment (we state the fact from undoubted authority) ministers have no anxiety as to the second reading. A majority of nine or ten has been already secured for that stage, and it is not probable that the number will be diminished between this time and the day of trial."

In the Chamber of Deputies, of France, on the 27th of February, on the question of voting 1,000,000 of francs to relieve the sufferers from the island of St. Domingo, the Minister of Marine said:—

"That during the last year an agent of the Haytien government was at Paris. On the 2d of April two treaties were agreed on with this agent, the first relative to the debt owing by St. Domingo to the French government, the second relative to commerce. The first stipulated for the payment of an annuity of four millions; the second, a treaty of commerce, was based on the most perfect reciprocity. France was to enjoy the same privileges as the most favored nations. Whilst this was going on, the Haytien government manifested hostile dispositions towards France, it suppressed the half duty stipulated by the treaty on the introduction of French merchandize. Our Consul thought proper to withdraw. The minister admitted that France had cause to complain of Hayti, but that the government before engaging in a war, ought to exhaust all means of arrangement. He would not discuss the hostile project of General Lamarque (which was to fit out ships of war for the purpose of injuring the commerce of Hayti) it might be done no doubt, but he did not think it necessary to explain himself further. He thought that France ought to take some measures, and on that account he regretted that when the budget of his department had been discussed, a reduction had been made on the sum asked for the purpose of arming vessels."

The Hamburg correspondent of the 22d February, contains the following, dated St. Petersburg, February 11:—

"We live here in the pleasing hope that peace will be maintained in Europe. It appears, therefore strange to us to read of rumors of war in some foreign papers. The Imperial Guards, which, since the termination of the Polish war, had taken up their quarters in Courland and Livonia, commenced their march on the 9th instant, to return to this capital. The first column, consisting of the heavy cavalry and a division of infantry, will arrive here towards the end of February.—We have been much surprised at an article in the Journal de Francfort, said to have been taken from the Moscow Gazette of December 27, and expressing inimical feelings against England. We can positively assert that neither this article, nor any other that could give rise to a similar mystification, has ever appeared in the columns of the Moscow Gazette. We may further add, that the Moscow Gazette was published neither on the 27th of December old style, nor on the 27th of December new style. The language of this article is too little in accord with the sentiments of the Russian people, which have lived in almost an uninterrupted alliance of 150 years with England, that it has excited here the utmost indignation."

Extract of a letter from Toulon, dated the 23d of February:

"The brig La Comete and another vessel, have just sailed suddenly for the Eastward with sealed orders. The sloop L'Eole, of Brest, has arrived here after touching at Algesiras, Tangiers, and Algiers. She states that on the 6th inst, the day before she left Algiers, the Duke de Rovigo had caused three Algerines, convicted of having murdered two Frenchmen, to be executed. The men confessed their crime. The execution took place with every circumstance to render it impressive upon an immense crowd assembled in the new square. Four battalions were under arms, and all the posts were doubled, as a measure of precaution."

Another letter dated the 23d of February, says:

"One half of the squadron which had lately been sent to Italy has returned to this port, and the remainder is expected."

A letter from Toulon, dated the 19th inst, says:—"We have learned from merchant vessels that the first division of the expedition to Italy has arrived safe at Civita Vecchia, and landed all the troops. The transports Meuse and Rhone have already sailed to join them, and the Algerine steamboat is on the point of starting for the same destination.

The Paris papers state, that a duel has taken place on the 15th of February, in the Bois de Boulogne, near Paris, between the Count Leon, (natural son of Napoleon,) and Mr. Hewett, an Englishman, and Aid-de-Camp of the Duke of Wellington. The natural son of Napoleon killed the Aid de-Camp of the Duke of Wellington.

The Borsen Halle, a Hamburg journal, announces that five merchants of consequence at Stockholm have lately disappeared, and no traces of them have since been found. The Nya Argus states that the Bank will suspend its payments for a few days. This circumstance has made a serious impression at Stockholm.

An unusual agitation seems to prevade the people of some of the principalities of Germany. In the Papal States tranquility has been entirely restored by the Austrian troops.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.

I can give you intelligence which you may deem to be almost official: it comes from the most authentic source.

Prussia discards! The day before yesterday the government took the resolution of disbanding the last regiment until June next, with the exception of a sufficient portion to mount guard.

Orders have been given for the execution of this decree, and an injunction has been issued to reduce the service merely to the guards; and these were to be employed only on the most urgent occasions, provided that the portion of the troops remaining in the service may be limited to as small a number of men as possible. This measure, which will be carried into effect throughout the army in 15 days and the farthest will at once convince France and all Europe of the entire sincerity of the pacific intentions of Prussia; and thus Frederick III. will have obtained the glory of having taken the first step in ending that state of doubt in which, up to this moment, both Princes and people have been involved, and which has nearly paralyzed the general interests of the continent."

SPAIN AND PORTUGAL.

PARIS, February 20.

The news from Madrid received to-day, in date of the 29th February, by the banking houses, confirm the accounts we have already given of the measures taken by Spain to assist Don Miguel. A regiment of the Guard of Ferdinand has been sent to the frontier, and the artillery has received orders to hold 60 pieces of cannon ready, instead of 36, which were at first ordered to be prepared to take the field. Cuidac Rodrigo will be at the head-quarters of Ferdinand's army.

Letters have been received from Madeira to the 4th inst. There is another rumor of a revolt among the troops in favor of Don Pedro, but it rests upon slight authority. There has been a plot discovered, and all accounts agree that Don Pedro has only to show himself and the island will declare for the young queen.

GOVERNOR MASON.—His excellency, the acting Governor of the Territory of Michigan, at a special session of the Mayor's Court, was found over to keep the peace and held to recognize for his good behavior at the June term of the Circuit Court.—[Detroit Cou.

Monerieff, has dramatised Bulwer's last novel, Eugene Aram, and the piece has already been performed at the Surry Theatre, London. A London critic, speaking of it, says:—"The piece abounds with scenes of intense interest—was played to a crowded house, and announced for repetition amidst the loudest applause."

Saved from burning their fingers.—A column of boiling water has sprung up in the Mediterranean, in place of the volcanic island, about which there was likely to have been a dispute between the English and Neapolitan governments. We think both will now be ready to own it will not be worth their while to get into hot water.—Figaro in London.

ADULTERATED FOOD.—We would caution persons against indulging too free a use of this species of confectionary. The acidity of its taste is produced by vitriolic or sulphuric acid; a small portion of which answers a good purpose in colds, but when taken in any large quantity has a very deleterious effect. A number of instances have lately come under own personal observation, of violent vomiting, occasioned by eating acidulated drops, such as are sold at the shops. Parents should in particular guard their children against the use of this kind of confectionary, which was never intended to be used as confectionary, but only as a remedy for colds, and then to be taken in small quantities. We believe it is sometimes sold under the name of Lemon Drops.—[N. Y. Constellation.]

ANTIQUITY OF FATTENING OYSTERS.—Whitaker, in his History of Manchester, says:

"The Romans first taught us the art of fattening oysters in artificial beds, the feeding pits being first invented about twenty years before Christ, and first constructed upon the shores of Baiae; and even as early as the reign of Vespasian, the British Oysters were deemed famous among the Romans, and thought worthy to be carried to Italy."

It has lately been discovered, says an English journal before us, that the best paper for wrapping, writing and printing, may be produced from wood shavings boiled in mineral or vegetable alkali. One hundred pounds of wood and twelve pounds of alkali will produce a ream of paper.

The Sword of Washington.—We are indebted to a friend for the following notice:

"The sword of Washington, produced by Silas E. Burroughs, Esq. for the centennary celebration in N. York, is a neat small sword, such as was worn by general officers during our Revolution. It was presented to General Washington by Frederick the Great of Prussia, with this complimentary remark: "From the oldest general in the world to the greatest." The hilt, handle, and guard, are of fine polished steel. The scabbard of wood, covered with polished hardened steel skin, and mountings of polished steel. Hung to the belt by a polished steel chain and waist hook. The blade tapering, triangled, and sharp pointed, and edged, of fine steel, figured for about six inches from the hilt, a rising sun with some other devices on each side of it. The steel ornaments of the guard, handle, and belt, are neat and tastefully disposed, and at the time it was manufactured, sixty or seventy years since, were probably as expensive as it would be now to mount it elegantly with gold. Mr. B. had it, on his return to the south, at his lodgings at the United States Hotel, on the evening of the 23d ult. where several gentlemen were kindly permitted to inspect and examine it.

"The sword hung by Washington's side when he resigned the command of the army to Congress, when he delivered his inaugural, and when he delivered his farewell address."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

COMMERCIAL REGISTER.

From Levy's Prices Current of April 21.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 21 inst. 5 of Louisiana and Mississippi 2038 bales, Mobile 449, N. Alabama and Tennessee 1,087, Florida 1486; together 15,924 bales Cleared at the same time, 6117; making an addition of 9747, and leaving on hand, inclusive of all on shipboard not cleared on the 19th inst, a stock of 88,742 bals. The sales of the week are, viz: 300 bales Mississippi at 9¼, 40 at 11, 70 at 9¾, 170 at 12 cents, and 226 Alabama at 8¼, and 600 at 8¾. We continue to quote as last week, the nominal value of the article.

SUGAR remains without change since our last quotations—in the city, small lots of very superior quality sometimes bring 6¾ cents, but in general the article is dull at former quotations; more dull, we think, this week than last, as sales do not appear to remain longer on the levee than usual, without finding purchasers. Cleared this week, 2,500 hhds.

MOLASSES, as remarked in our last number, is becoming very scarce—the stock is now so much reduced that the demand cannot much longer be supplied. On plantation 19 to 20 cents were the last sales paid.

TOBACCO.—The new crop arrives so slowly that transactions are of necessity on a small scale—the only sales of which we have knowledge are, viz: 23 hhds at 2¼, 4¼, and 5 cents per lb., equal quantities of cassed and first quality, so as to average all round quality (a mode among dealers) also 150 hhds, equal quality of each, at 2¼ 3 and 4 cents, Cleared 662 hhds.

FLOUR has had a fair demand throughout the week, though at a reduction in price—$5 25 per bbl. is now the current rate; the stock on hand is sufficient though not excessive. Arrived this week, 3021 bbls.

PORK.—No change has taken place except for Prime, which we now quote at $9 50 a $ 75—other descriptions meet a fair demand at the rates quoted last week. Arrived this week 4949 bbls. and 7400 lbs in bulk.

WHISKEY had declined in price, and was sold at 30 cts. per gallon—it is again improving, and is now worth 31 cents. Arrived this week 1288 bbls.

NEW-YORK MARKET, April 7.

COTTON.—The transactions, since our last report, have been more extensive, but without any material change in prices. The sales embrace about 1800 bales of Upland at 9 a 11 ¼ cents, and 600 New-Orleans 11 a 12 at 12 cents, making a total for the week of 3000 bales, about half of which has been taken for home manufacture.

MOLASSES.—New Orleans and New Porto are held at 30 cents.

HAVRE MARKET.

HAVRE, March 1.—Cotton.—We have had, during the last ten days, steady demand for cotton, at full prices for all descriptions of United States short staples. The sales comprise 6234 balas, as follows: 2000 bales of Louisiana at 94 to 106 (this last price for a choice lot of 93 B) 2848 B. Uplands, Mobile, Alabama or Tennessee at 74 to 92, and 267 E. Pernambuco at 101 to 107; the whole duty paid. Imports—16886 bales, exclusive of the cargo of the Henry Lee.

Tobacco.—A sale of 20 hhds Kentucky has taken place at 36f, per 50 ks. in bond. Whalebone is generally declining: 20½ tons southern have been purchased at 1f. 55 duty paid.

A postscript to a letter from Havre of the 2d of March, says "the duty on grain and flour, had been reduced to the minimum rate."

Another letter of 1st, "a good deal has been doing today in coffee, and prices have been considerably improved."

LIVERPOOL MARKET

LIVERPOOL, 29th Feb.

The demand for cotton last week was on a limited scale, the sales only reaching 16,140 bales, including 340 Sea Island at 10 a 15; 10 stained 6½; 5170 Uplands 5¼, 7¾, (30 to 7 5-8); 1320 Orleans 5¾, 7¾, (140 at 6 a 8 3-4) 980 Alabama 5¾ a 6 5-8. With the exception of 300 bales for export, the business done was confined to consumers, who, in the early part of the week, purchased on rather more favorable terms, but subsequently, the market became more steady, and any previous decline was regained; the import during the week was 20,200 bales. The sales of cotton for the four past days are about 15,000 bales, with an advance in prices of fully ¼ per lb. but a corresponding improvement not having taken place yesterday, in the Manchester market, ours has had less animation to day; about 1600 of the foregoing are on speculation.

Centre College is situated in the immediate vicinity of Danville, a quiet and retired village, where there are few temptations to seduce young men from their studies, or allure them into vicious habits. The town and surrounding country are remarkably healthy. Danville is ten miles distant from Harrodsburg Springs, the favorite watering place of persons from the south. The proximity of these springs, affords to parents from that quarter, a favorable opportunity of occasionally seeing their sons who may be placed here for education.

The fact, that for years past, there has been a very preponderating religious and moral influence in the college, and village, presents a strong inducement to parents and guardians to send their sons and wards to this place as affording a strong guarantee for the safety of morals and correctness of habits.

During the last year, a large addition of philosophical and classical apparatus, has been received from the eastward.

The Annual Commencement, at which degrees are conferred, will be held at the close of the session.
