CITY INTELLIGENCE.

ONE BILL.—This celebrated violin will give its first concert to Wednesday evening, 1845, at the Washington Army Hall, seated by a full audience.

Another part of our paper, without the knowledge or gentleness, it was simply a looseleaf.

Mr. Louis Guimard, baron, will also sing some operas.

Those who have already heard Ole Bull's performance on the violin, the bare announcement of his concert will be sufficient to ensure their attendance, whilst those who have not heard him will avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing the soul stirring notes he draws from his instrument.

MR. CHARLES THAYER.—Believe beautiful play of "Lady of Lyons" will be produced this evening, in which Mr. Anderson will personate the character of Claude Melot.

Mr. Anderson's perception of the character, has gained high encouragement, and on both sides of the Atlantic, and we are led into the expectation of a high level, in the enjoyment of it, upon this occasion.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—The brilliant drama of Norman Leake, which has been produced in a most graceful style, will be repeated this evening.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Daniel Morris, charged with larceny, James O'Donnell, charged with killing Willis, charged with assault and battery, were yesterday arraigned before the Court.

THE CONVENTION.—A committee of three members was appointed to cause of the delay in the publication of the Convention, and likewise to examine the propriety of appointing an additional reporter.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Legislature, on Saturday, date, was adjourned under the direction of the speaker, hours, or late of great heat, or heat, and will be adjourned, unless otherwise directed.
