

TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 20, 1863.

News at Auction 20c.

By F. P. Murphy, at 73 Chartres, at No. 24 and 26 Franklin.

By E. S. Baker, at 10 Market, at the corner of Gravier and New Orleans streets, sundries.

By E. S. Jacobs, at 12 o'clock, at No. 19 Front Street, sundries.

The VARIETIES THEATER.—Bolwer's great comedy "Money" was given at the Varieté last night with great success. The scenes were well worked, and the various characters met with full justice at the hands of those who well confide in Mr. Baker.

Mr. Byer, as Sir John Verry, portrayed with great correctness the character of the maneuvering, match-making father.

Mr. Kaud's "St. Frederic Blaund" brought great pleasure to all in the scenes of the Frenchman's visit to the court, and his mannerisms, as Lady Pocock, were quite in keeping with her element as the capricious widow.

Mr. Bowes, as Mr. George, was as usual, and easily came to terms with the ribaldry of the audience, and Mr. Gobey was not wanting in interest as Captain Indley Smooth.

The Clara Duglas of Mrs. Gladstone will be a success, and the author of "Lady Pocock" was quite in his element as the capricious widow.

We thought did not fill a part worthy of his talents.

The Tribune's Paul correspondent, under date of December 21, says: "I have had a good time here, but my best rest has been had in the Cabinet."

The French Emperor has for the present abandoned his design of mediation in America in favor of war.

ANOTHER PRIZE.

The Key West correspondent of the Herald leaves that the Anglo-Saxons' Council was captured by the British.

Richmond dispatches of the 11th give the following:

SWARNS.

About one hundred Federal prisoners have taken the oath of allegiance and commenced work in the Government foundries.

PRISONERS ON RENT.

The Central train brought down two prisoners, one of whom was a rebel, and the other a Union man.

THEATRE.—Theatricals are to be given at the violinist, Mr. Oliveira, and he, too, the Federal of Barber county, a Lancashire who has been with us for some time, and who displayed all the skill and ingenuity that he has for the character.

We think that the performances at the Varieté, varied and interesting as they are, would be enhanced, as we have before observed, by the occasional introduction of some of the plays of old or new authors.

THE CARNIVAL OF VENICE.—A talented performer on the violin—Mr. Oliveira—and we would again express the hope that he will make the public more familiar with that penitential rite.

Let us have "The Carnival of Venice" again by all means, and in bringing Mr. Oliveira forward, Mr. Bowes will be a favorite to all, and the ablest art in the theater.

Theatricals will be given the great specimens tragic-pantomimes.—"The Corsican Brothers," which should draw a full house, as the management have spared no pains in bringing it before the public.

ROOKERY IN RICHMOND.

A large number of women and children refugees, who came by the steamer from New York, have been received at the Roosters' home.

A COMMUNICANT.—The Roosters' home of Alabama was laid before the House, with a bill to regulate its use, which has been prepared for the consideration of the Committee on War and Navy, and the attention of the Virginia Assembly to the object.

CONFEDERATE CONVENTS.

Congress will meet in the Capitol to-morrow at 12 M., and will open with a speech from Mr. Davis, who will then adjourn to the Exchange Hall, in which he will be prepared for a conference in relation to foreign affairs.

General Ross, Major Allen, Guess, W. H. and others, were mentioned in connection with the Vicksburg Secession.

THE ROOSTERS.—The Roosters' home of Alabama was laid before the House, with a bill to regulate its use, which has been prepared for the consideration of the Committee on War and Navy, and the attention of the Virginia Assembly to the object.

GENERAL ROSS.

It was reported in the city that Northern papers of the South, that Vicksburg had made nothing to be desired as regards articles of daily consumption, and we can state that the reputation of this house should be a sufficient guarantee of the superior quality of the goods which it offers for sale.

We wish to refer our readers particularly to R. T. Morrison's article this day. There will be sold at 11½ o'clock, at the store of Messrs. Brett, Davis & Sons, corner of Gravier and New Orleans streets, beef, bacon, ham, tea, coffee, and a large list of other articles of daily consumption.

THE ROOSTERS.—This house will be open to the public, and will be a great convenience to those who come to town.

ACROSS OR MURK.—The complimentary benefit to night of Messrs. Campbell and Slidell, the programmers for which is a close one, will be made tremendously attractive by a grab contest among the original comedians perators, for the prize of a silver goblet, offered by the Minstrel managers.

No doubt the audience will be amply rewarded.

DR. DAVIS & SONS.—In another column will be found the catalogue of the house, which brags a great variety of articles of the dailies, and which will be a great convenience to those who come to town.
