BANKING IN MICHIGAN.

The locofoces who constitute a majority in the fe-interest fitting and the state appear; mayer their professions a state himent to the hard-many system, to be desperable devoted to banks, and all the side and appliances; what their brethren contemptuously style rags an shipplasters. This however, is but the common take of the party, as has been recently exemplified in No York city, where the locofoco mayor elect is a ban firector, a large stockholder in various corporation and intimately conversant with all the mysteries of party elsewhere, are pursuing in practice what the scout in theory. A bill has recently passed the legilature by a considerable majority, creating a stat-bank with seven branches. The capital of the bank is $2,000,000, one half to be owned by the state, the other half by individuals, to be under the ge perintendance of a board of six directors, appointed h perinteriorance or a notard of six directors, appointed by the legislature on joint heliod.

Upon this subject a Philadelphia paper mays, with much truth. "The numberless banking institutions is the state that know no law, and are gowerned by manneriple, that are rightly eathed wild cat banks, have destroyed the confidence that once existed in Michigan hands." gan banks. The solvent or rightly conducted ban pufer in consequence. The private banking law hat been abused, and we cannot disguise the fact that the banks of Michigan at present, have a worse rejutation than those of any other northern state, if not of an whether the establishment of a state bank
