A Mexican force, we learn, was recently de-question for the neighborhood of Partis, to de-strey the erops of corn, &c. in that region. The resident Myxicana attre applying to Gen. Tay-lar anisanse, collected and drove off the destroy the crops pt corn, &c. in that region. The resident Maxicane after applying to tien. Taylor for assistance, collected and drove off the destructives. There can be no doubt that the people of Tamanipas would gladly errect their into an independent state, were the thing possible. Their stileerable, ever-changing government, not only, axes them exorbitantly, but refuses them protection from the toobers within, and from the aggressions of the Indians without, their limits. They have more than once attempted to cut loose from the central government, but found they possessed not the physical theara. It does seem to us that, having invaded the territory of a people, which we hold possession of for the purpose of descript their superior government into the performance of certain duties, ecommon justice, and the dictates of humanity, require that we should secure them, for the time being, in the enjoyment of hie and the possession of property. But we already have a striking proof of the justice and wisdom in which our government is conducting this warwids the "bill of Abominations," or in other words, Robert J. Walker's British Tunff.

Robbery, rape and hanging appear to be the order of the day among the rancheros in the neighborhood of Matanaros. A few days ago partysof robbers went to the house of a Mexi-
