NEW-ORLEANN, SATURDAR MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1831.

A bill pessed the house, yesterday, on the sul ject of the introduction of slaves in this State. Although the bill be not prohibitive in toto, still it embedded in the bases certain restrictive provisions, which will, in ing from the Monogay fiver to the Poteniae, dents of Louisians, and eventually answer the pur- ubout two or three hundred yards, which will . We preet with unfeigned pleasure the return o Mr. J. A. Caldwell, with his theatrical company.

Upward of 100 pieces of new muslins and imitation cambrie muslin have were found on the 1st Instant, about the shores of Staten Island, between the fort at the narrows, and the sailors' Snug Harbour. This discovery would fead to the inference that actual smuggling, or an attempt at smuggling, had taken place on the spot.

At one of the sittings of the Tariff Convention, a Mr. French, are presentative from Albany county, called the consideration of the Convention on a resolution, proposing to affect certain sums of the publie duties, growing out of the wariffs to assist the southern states in transforming bondinen into free- only and Which will convey passen- freight—Passengers, Messrs. > London, Sept. 27. The Paris express in our paper of vesterday communic: ted the termination of the debates on the conduct of the French Ministry. The debate on their external policy lasted three days -that on home affairs was finished in one. The result has been the approval by the 4 hamber of Deputies of the system of policy followed by M Casimir Perier and his colleagues, both in for cign and domestic affairs. This decision, which is regarded as at once a security for the stability of the present French Ministry, and for the maintenance of paper, has given great satisfaction to the moderate party in Paris. With the exception of this important intelligence, there is nothing in the journals of Saturday which de-are in arrears, whithout the means of paying off some reports were made upon petitions. One was a petition praying for the establishment of a fund in each commune for the support of the poor. The report of the committee stated that the object of this petition could only be obtained by the imposition of poors-rates, and that the great inconveniences which had resulted from ber dread to enter on such a system.
