

The World

Case, 78 Chartres street.

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1862.

Vol. XVII—New Series Vol XXV—Whole No 12455.

UNION INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 14, 1862.

By R. P. Ryan, at 7 o'clock, at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, La., on the 13th inst.

At the Court of the United States District Judge, on the 13th inst.

The last of the United States Congress with regard to the division of the active line of the United States Army, has been passed, and the President has signed it, and it will be in force on the 1st of September.

Formerly the grade of Captain in the United States Army was the highest rank, and was held by the officers of the active line, and the rank of Major General was the highest rank in the United States Army. It is now the rank of Major General, and the rank of Major General is the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

By order of Colonel Howard, who is in command of the Memphis Arsenal, the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

From Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Tribune gives the following account of the capture of the Memphis Arsenal, on the 13th inst.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.

Resolved, That the rank of Major General be held by the officers of the active line of the United States Army, and the rank of Major General be the highest rank in the United States Army.