The hours o his mistress, the said Frederica, in the month of August, 1832, by beating her with a club of wood. The hoirs o said Frederica, by their tutor, the memorialist, demanded from the treasurer of the state, the sum of three hundred dollars, the amount allowed by law to the owners of slaves "sentenced to death" by the existing laws. It appears that the treasurer refused payment of the same under the 3d section of the act of 1814, which provides, "that any slave sentenced to death in consequence of revolting, or of a plot to revolt against he or her master or mistress in particular, or in gonsequence of having willfully and maliebously stricken his or her mistress, or the child or children of his or her mistress, or any white overacer, &c, shall be at the loss of the owner only." Your committee think the treasurer decided correctly, the heirs having no claim o which he could take conjugance. But it is contended that the lay applied to only one half of the allowance, the slave being commonicy property at the time the nurfler was committee, having been purchased by the father of the present elainants. Your committee cannot agree to the reasoning treasurer decided correctly, the heirs having no claim of which he could take cognizance. But it is contended that the he could take cognizance. The amount the memorialist would thus be entitled to receive, would sully be $150, and whether the circumstances would justify such an appropriation is for the wisdom of the house to decide.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
