LUCIEN HERMANN, SECRETARY.

NEW-ORLEANS, 5th August, 1841.

The Board of Brokers met this day. The following sales were effected with lodgings, and half a dozen other applications were made.

Sales at auction were stopping almost altogether yesterday, a fact which, in connection with the Board of Brokers' sales, which we have recorded, and the private sales which we have heard of, but which we had not room to record, almost warranted the belief that the sale season was about to close for the present year. North American.

CULTIVATION OF COTTON IN INDIA.

We find the following interesting article in the Madras Athenæum of Wednesday. It is entitled to all the consideration to the cotton planters of the South:

We have been favored by a friend, with a copy of a letter, addressed to him, from the interior of India, by a gentleman of intelligence and observation, who has been long engaged in the cultivation of cotton in that country. We make the following extract from it, in the hope that it may lead to some inquiry, and to some effort, on the part of the native cultivators, which will be attended with the most beneficial results to the country.
