LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

OFFICIAL REPORT
OF THE
SENATE OF LOUISIANA.

REMARKS OF MR. DOWNS, OF WASHITA, on the UNION BANK BILL.

SENATE, March 14th 1844.

Mr Downs expressed regret that it became necessary for him to trespass further upon the attention of the Senate in reply to all that he had said during the discussion of the bill, and to the arguments, and reasonings of those that were favorable to the bill. He had not set with a repenting ing the reasons that urged him to the course he proposed, that regardless to the clamors of the multitude, he would do, and now submitted, and was about taking a course which, if true, will be owned some day by himself as being right and which he is confident will be supported.

The Senator from Attakapas has, on a former occasion, thought proper to employ a sarcastic remark, and now again to use some sneering remarks, and if it is upon some acts he is questioned, he must be answered, and if it is upon some acts he is questioned, he must be answered, and if it is upon some acts he is questioned, he must be answered
