Check Upon the Registrars.

We subjoin that section of the act of the Congress entitled "an act to amend the naturalization laws, and to punish crimes against the same, and for other purposes," which makes it the duty of the Circuit Judge of the United States to appoint one person from each political party who, when so appointed, shall be authorized to attend at all times and places fixed for the registration of voters, and at the counting of votes. Judge Woods, of the Circuit of the United States, has made the appointments thus provided for, and seems to us a sufficient check can be held upon the Registrars and officers charged with the receiving, keeping and counting the votes on election day:

And be it further enacted, That in every city having upward of twenty thousand inhabitants it shall be the duty of the Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States for the circuit wherein said city shall be, upon the application of two citizens, to appoint in writing for each election district or voting precinct in said city, and to change or remove at pleasure, as occasion may require, from time to time, two citizens resident of the district for which they are designated, from each political party, who, when so designated, shall be, and are hereby, authorized to attend at times and places fixed for the registration of voters, and at the holding of such elections, being duly registered, to be entitled to vote for Representatives in Congress, and at all times and places for holding elections of Representatives in Congress, and for counting the votes cast at said elections, and to challenge any name proposed to be registered, any vote offered, and to be present at witness throughout the counting of votes, and to remain where the ballot boxes are kept at all times after the polls open until the votes are finally counted, and said persons and either of them shall have the right to affix their signatures to any certificate to said register for purposes of identification, and to attach to any vote offered, and to be kept with said ballots
