Indeed, they are getting wearied already. The fanatics blow their trumpets, and make a confounded din and hibbob, as before, but with less effect. The people are getting accustomed to the strident basts of these over-zealous gentry, and pay little heed to them. Anti-slavery would have mechane at allemot a particle more than it has had for the last two years, were it not that the sheenoof all political issues has, to a considerable extent, etlaced party lines of demaration, kesterned the obligations which party men once deemed paramount, and thus afford-

Indiam Attanch upon the Emrigrams.

The last Western mail brought us a somewhat disconnected letter from 1. G. James, giving an account of depredations committed by the Indiams on the property of parties migrating to California. The letter is dated Loup Fork of the Platte River, June 24, and says: "To-day a company of men from Howard county, Mo. came to se for assistance. They had been driven to the property of Pawness Indiams. They not by a party of Pawness Indiams. They not be a party of Pawness Indiams. They not be provided the secondary of the property.
