Those tocoloro journalista who vent their coars vituperation upon all who dare hint that the Admin stration is attempting to unite the two questions of Oergin and the Turrill while they are engaged in the congenial labor of abusing the whigs, might not un profusbly cast a casual glance at some of the organ of their own party. The Washington Times, which is believed to have been purchased by Senator Alle and his friends, for the express purpose of maintaining and which is one of the most thorough-paced locofoco papers in the country, notices the proposed scheme in terms of the most understant denunciation. We com-legislative trackery to mix with it any other, they should sternly refuse the settlement of any other issuited the representatives of the people have observed the instructions of time election, and desposed of the question of honor and soil and dominion on the firms which have been so emphatically and specifically prescribed by the public will.

Oregon being thus disposed of—that is, the 'notice' given, jurisdiction of laws and authority extended, mails established; forther erected; the right of the United States to the whole Territory from $2 deg. to 54 deg. 40 min. declared, and the piedge of the Government asserted to maintain to our people their right to these limits—the future policy of the Executive and his Secretary, in their treatment of the subject, as we claim, being already distinctly marked out, by their returns of arbitration, in one essential; and in another, a boil a sowal of our ownership of the whole of Cervitory—then and not till them; if the Trends of Oregon are true to their constituents and to their country, will they suffer other and minor questions to obtain a proper support of the subject of the subject of the subject of the support of the subject o

We apprehend that the seoraful gibe might with more appropriateness be hurled back upon the caluminators, as peculiarly their own. Their Administration has resemble out forth, the arrival ministration has recently put forth the project of a Tariff, so essentially British in its character, so con-Tarin, so essentially prime in his character, so con-ducive to the best interests of Great Britain, in con-tradistinction to the prosperity of the United States, that it has set all the politicians in England wild with delight. Their jubilization and rapture at the prospect of flooding the United States with the produce of their paper labor, are boundless. In their poper labor, are boundess. In their pop at the certainty of enriching British manufacturers and crushing American industry, they have forgotten of American statesmen. On the one hand, they pre sent Messrs. Cathoun and McDurrie with spl sent mesers. Catheon and McDryrts with splendid-ly bound copies of the "League," as a token of their gratitude for the ability with which these gentlemen defead the principles of Free Trade; and on the other, they order Mr. Wallkan's report on the Tariff to be spread before the members of both Houses of Parlia-ments, as the programment of the programm

The Fireners's Procession.—It has rayely been our good fortune to witness a more animating and interesting process on, than the one which paraded our streets yeserday. Our firemen turned out in large numbers, there being no less than from 1,000 to 1,200 onen in uniform. Their appearance was elemity, near, and appropriate. Their engines, the quality and powers of which, cannot be surpaised, were tastefully ornamented, and looked unexceptionably well. The banners were beautiful and devices appropriate. When to all this fascinating external show, we bring to mind the orderly conduct of our firehen, their indominable energy, their well known and well tried courage, their alacrity to be present at the seche of danger, and their devotedness to their useful and arduous calling, we cannot refrain from stamping them as the most orderly and efficient dops to be found in this or any other country. In addition to our own companies, we were pleased to see in the line, those of Lafayette and of Gretna, whose appearance was exceedingly good. The procession moved at about ten o'clock, and extended fully one mule and a haif. The stress through which if passed were througed with spectators, so much so, in-deed, las almost to block up algassage to pic-destrains. The windows and bulcomes were filled with the heavy of our city. The day was warm and bright, and dvery thing appeared to combine istorably in order lo add lustre, pleasure and astrafiction to the Anniversary of our Firemen. However, the heavy of our city.
