Notification Worksheet. The DRB considered also Sher Agha's (ISN 3845) testimony, as well as his responses to questions posed to him by all parties to the DRB.

7. The Personal Representative called (b)(6) as a witness who testified in person in the presence of Sher Agha (ISN 3845) during the open session of the DRB. (b)(6) identified himself as a farmer and a tribal elder of Khalati village. (b)(6) claimed that he knew Sher Agha (ISN 3845) as "Dil-Awar" since he was a baby. (b)(6) stated that prior to his capture "Dil-Awar" worked for a motorcycle dealership. (b)(6) also indicated that although "Dil-Awar" lived in Khalati, his wife's family lived in Espandi. (b)(6) stated that "Dil-Awar" has never been involved in anti-CF attacks and that "Dil-Awar" was not involved with the Taliban. (b)(6) also said that if he knew that "Dil-Awar" was involved in those types of activities, he would not testify on his behalf.

8. (b)(6), Sher Agha's (ISN 3845) father, provided a brief oral statement to the DRB for its consideration, although Sher Agha's (ISN 3845) father did not testify as a witness. He stated that he is a very old man and pled for the release of his son because his family misses him. (b)(6) said that he could not support his grandchildren, as he has sold nearly all of their property.

9. The Recorder called the following witnesses who testified in the closed session and outside the presence of Sher Agha (ISN 3845):

a. (b)(3), 10 USC 130b; (b)(6), aka "(b)(6)," who is a linguist at the DRB who speaks Farsi, Pashtu, English, and Spanish. "(b)(6)" indicated that during the unclassified proceedings that an Afghan witness said that the detainee was from Khalati village.

b. (b)(3), 10 USC 130b; (b)(6), analyst, Detainee Review Board, spoke regarding the (b)(1); (b)(2); (b)(5)

10. In determining whether continued internment is necessary to mitigate the threat Sher Agha (ISN 3845) may pose, the DRB assessed his level of threat and weighed, among other things, his potential for rehabilitation, reconciliation, and eventual reintegration into society. The DRB considered also (b)(1); (b)(2); (b)(5)

In sum, based upon the evidence and testimony presented during his 5 June 2010 DRB, Sher Agha (ISN 3845) meets the criteria for internment, but the continued internment of Sher Agha (ISN 3845) is not necessary to
