

Fluency of use

Display content properly

Use from a tablet device

Find the language quickly in a list

Findability

Jump among a set of languages easily

Locate the selector easily

Find language settings

Find input method config. when needed

Learnability

Distinguish UI from Content

Explain input method config.

Make clear the consequences of the selection

Automate font download

Use big tap targets

Anticipate likely elements in the trigger

Hide initially less frequent languages

Shortcut to "undo" previous changes

Easy to find placement

Easy to find placement

Show shortcut to config. when editing text

Present as separate choices

Provide help information

Add checkboxes for multiple selection

Font customization settings

Allow gestures for scrolling

Emphasize local languages

Automate default language selection

User specified favourites

Use an icon to identify language selection

Use cross links from language-related tools

Show shortcut to config. on first removal

Link to user settings for UI

Present it as "input language"

Use a selected list for languages added

Use sensible defaults to hide adv. settings

Adapt some widgets to fit real state

Emphasize browser config. languages

Indicate languages are not available

(Re)enable/disable input aids while editing

Use languages in their own script

Priorize methods available for the current lang.

Content first, and optional to affect the UI

Warning when fonts disabled to recover

Group languages by script type

Emphasize previously selected langs.

Allow text search to filter the list

Present UI lang. as "language for menus"