OFFICE OF THE LEHIGH COAL AND NAVIGATION COMPANY Philadelphia, January 15, 1934.

AM directed by the Managers of this Company to communicate to their friends and customers abroad, the terms and conditions upon which they propose, dering the shipping season of the present year, to deliver their coal by the cargo, on board of vessels, at the Company's wherves on the Delaware, either in Philadelphia or all Reistol above the city, as may be most convenient for the Company when vessels shall apply for loading.

Proce for any quantity not less than 50 tens and 1,000 tons, $5.00 for hard coal, and $4.50 for set coal, per ton of 3,240 lbs; 1000 tens and upwards, $4.75 for hard, and $4.55 for set.

At the above named prices the coal will be carefully Philadelphia, January 15, 1834.

At the above named prices the coal will be carefully raked before shipment, but, if taken unraked from the boat, as it comes from the mines, the price will be 25 cts.

For any quantity not exceeding 100 tens, payment to be marken the lat Nevember, 1834; above that quantitions fail on the first November, 1834; the other half the let January, 1835.

The character of the Lehigh coal is so well known, that The character of the Length coal is so well known, that it is not deemed necessary to subjoin any recommendation of its quality. It is sufficient to state, that for parler grates, stoves and culinary uses, no coal is more generally approved in this place; while as fuel for steam engines, for malting, horting brewers' and dyers' coppers, nail-works, formarice and rolling and sitting milk, it has decidedly the preference on account of its greater durability, and cleanliness, to the extent of more than two thirds of the elegalment, to the extent of more than two thirds of the aggregate consumption of anthracite coal for those purposes in Philadelphia and its vicinity.

The Lehigh soft coal ignites more easily and burns more freely than the hard—and on that account is preferred by

In case vessels are to take in at Bristol, they will be tow and the company's lamboats, without expense to the Captains or owners, and when loaded will be towed down the same way, also iree of charge.

Every exertion will be made to give vessels the utmost possible despatch.

It is to be understood that they must take their regular turn to load—and no claim for demurrage should they wait for their turn, or claim for any other cause beyond the Company's control can be allowed. The Managers, how-Company's control can be allowed by the Company civer, believe that the facilities possessed by the Company this year, will enable them to conduct their business with this year, will enable them to conduct seem dusiness with increased regularity and despatch.

No advantage of credit being gained by delay, it is respectfully suggested that orders should be sent early in the season, when freights and insurances are generally obtained on the best terms.

With every disposition to accommodate their cerrespondents, the Managers will use their best enceavors, as heretofore, to procure vessels, when so requested, on the lowest terms, but they would recommend that their customers should engage vessels for themselves whenever accordingle.

The Managers have further directed me to say that, The Managers have further directed me to say that, should they make any reduction this year from the prices for the export trade, named in this circular, persons giving previous orders shall receive the benefit of such reduction; at the same time, the Managers do not preclude themselves from advancing the price with the advance of the season, should they doem it expedient; but orders accepted will not be subject to any advance.

b) subject to any advance.
Yours, with respect,
OTIS AMMIDOR, Treasurer.
