NEW-ORLEANS:
SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1844.

☞ At the Grand Whig Mass Meeting on Thursday evening, at the St Louis Hall Room, the locofoco party did not conduct themselves with that decorum and respect for the ladies which we have generally found pervading both political parties in this city. Large numbers assembled in the bar-room of the Hotel, with their banners, &c., and were addressed by their orators.—Now as the bar-room is immediately beneath the Hall Room, and adjoining the Rotunda, in both of which places the whigs had assembled, the noise and hurrahs of the locofocos effectually drowned the music of the Philharmonic Society which had volunteered to perform for the whigs, and rendered the voices of the speakers in the Hall Room scarcely audible. Such conduct was discourteous to say the least. The whig party have scrupulously abstained from any attempt to interfere with or interrupt the proceedings of locofoco assemblages, and it is nothing more than sheer justice to claim similar moderation on their part. It is a poor excuse to allege—as we have heard some apologists for the disturbance do—that the locofoco party did not enter the Hall Room or do any thing calculated directly to disturb the proceeding, because, they entrenched themselves in the immediate vicinity of our place of meeting and accomplished indirectly the very same object. The cry is quite large enough we should think, to accommodate both political parties, and it our opponents were desirous of displaying their strength, or testing the capacity of their lungs, they could have effected both, without indecorously coming within ear shot of the Hall Room, and shouting until every other sound was almost completely stifled. We appeal to the gallantry of the citizens of New Orleans of both parties, and ask them whether a regard for the innocent assemblage of ladies who graced the Hall Room on the occasion referred to, should not have prompted a different course!

CHARGES FROM VIRGINIA.—A letter addressed to the Washington Standard by a highly respectable and influential citizen of Virginia, gives the most animating account of the Whig spirit and enthusiasm in that State. As samples of what the Whig gain will be in some of the counties the letter states that in 1840 Fluvanna gave Harrison 181 majority out of 500 votes. Now it will exceed 300. In Goochland, the Whigs have, without Locofoco cavil or dispute, made an accession of 70 or 80, and in the adjoining county of Cumberland, they have increased their strength considerably. In Albemarle the Whigs feel certain of 300 majority, which will be a gain of 100 over 1840. In fact, with the single exception of Wise's district, the Whigs will gain in nearly every county in the State. West of Blue Ridge they will sweep every thing before them. We really believe the prospect in Virginia to be exceedingly fair. From Western Virginia the Whigs say, "let the East but maintain its vote of 1840, and we will carry the State beyond a doubt." The Whigs of Eastern Virginia respond: "We shall more than maintain that vote—we shall do better nearly every where, and if the West accomplishes half of what it promises, the Old Dominion is safe for CLAY."

In the interim the greatest zeal and activity distinguish the canvass. Both parties are well organized and not a vote will be lost. The Locofocos are alarmed at the demonstrations in favor of the Whigs and are putting forth desperate energy to retain their ascendency in the State. They fear that if once the wand of the colossus which has so long held the Old Dominion spell-bound, be broken, she will never relapse into the supine and inglorious slumber in which she has lain inert and powerless for 20 years. The iron rule of locofocoism has kept her people in ignorance as dense as Egyptian darkness, has paralyzed her resources, drained her of her population; and reduced her from a first to a fourth rate State in our glorious galaxy. Every year she has gone on deteriorating in influence, in wealth, in moral estimation. God grant that the galaxy efforts of her noble Whig Sons to disenthrall the Mother of the States from the benumbing curse of locofocoism, may prevail! Under a healthful whig ascendency she will shine as ere she did, when she was every where praised and every where pointed to as the Mother of Statesmen, patriots and heroes.

FOURTH WARD POLE RAISING AND THIRD WARD MEETING.—Yesterday afternoon the gallant Whigs of the Fourth Ward, Second Municipality, raised the most splendid and lofty liberty pole which adorns the city. It rises perpendicularly more than a hundred feet, and is surmounted by a Liberty cap. From its loftiest point stream in triumph our ever glorious "stripes and stars." The occasion drew together a vast concourse who were eloquently and effectively addressed by Messrs Sevan, J. N. Marks and Odden. The Whigs then formed in procession and marched to the Mayor's market, where the Third Ward City Club held a meeting—and truly a MONSTER MEETING it was. The market was literally jammed full of ardent, and enthusiastic Whigs. There could not have been less than from 2000 to 3000 present. Councillor Hoss delivered a most able, masterly and conclusive defence of the Whig policy, and was followed by Mr Wizer, a member of the Junior Clay Club, who spoke in a strain of vigorous and impassioned eloquence that thrilled every heart, and awoke a cordial response in every bosom.

The Whig spirit is up in the Crescent City. As the contest approaches we grow eager for the fray. Nothing less than ONE THOUSAND MAJORITY will satisfy the Clay boys of Orleans.

☞ The "American Republicans" of New York city have nominated George Fulsom for Senator, and for member of Congress: Dr. Henry J. Lawrence in the IVth district; Thomas M. Woodruff in the Vth; and Wm. W. Campbell in the VIth. In the 3d district, they have not yet nominated a candidate. Of the four above named, Messrs. Fulsom and Campbell were whigs, and Messrs. Woodruff and Lawrence locos, prior to their uniting with the "Natives."

☞ The Whigs of New York city were to have an immense Mass Meeting on the evening of the 27th ult. to respond to the State nominations. Among the Speakers advertised to speak are Garrett Davis, Joseph L. White, Hugh Maxwell, and J. Prescott Hall; and among those invited are A. C. Bullitt of the Bee, G. W. Kendall of the Picayune, and other gentlemen.

☞ The Italian Opera experiment, which has so often failed, is to be repeated again in New York. A series of representations will commence in that city early in October. Most of the old company remain—such as Borghese, Perozzi and Valtellina. There is a Madame Picco engaged, a prima donna of high reputation, who will sing in the parts of contralto and mezzo soprano The first representation will be that of Bellini's opera Il Pirata—one of his most charming, though most neglected compositions.

☞ The Editor of the Albany Evening Journal has laid an action for libel against the editor of the Albany Argus, for charging him with having forged the statement that James K. Polk's slaves were branded. It is admitted that the statement is incorrect, but the Evening Journal distinctly alledged that it was copied from another print under the impression that it was true. As soon as the error was discovered, the Evening Journal hastened to acknowledge it, and retract the accusation against Mr Polk.

ANOTHER RESUSCITATION.—James Ferguson, Esq. a member of the bar in the county of Wayne, Virginia, and for some time, during the present canvass, one of the Locofoco orators, has renounced Polk and taken the field for the illustrious statesman, Henry Clay and Whig measures. Mr. Ferguson was one of the speakers at the Mass Meeting at Kenawha, C. H. on the 31st of July last. Since then he has come out for Clay.—At a Whig meeting in Cabell, a few days ago, he delivered an able and effective speech, and we feel confident much good has been done for the Whig cause.

PENNSYLTANIA.—On the 21st, the Whigs of Adams county held their mass meeting at Gettysburg. It was an immense and enthusiastic assemblage. The meeting was organized by the appointment of Gov. Ritner as President, and was addressed by Senator Barrow of La., and Genl Chambers of Pa. Mr. Barrow spoke two hours, and delivered a most able and effective harangue. Adams promises an 1840 majority for CLAY and MARBLE.

THE Whigs of Orange county, N. Y., had a noble gathering at Newburg on the 24th ult. Some twenty thousand Whigs were on the ground and were addressed with great eloquence and effect by Senator Berrien. Two done New York give the lie to those who doubt her integrity.

☞ We are indebted to the courtesies of Messrs Kate Aubrey, Republic and Compton, for late Louisville and Saint Louis papers.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

☞ William Moran, was arrested yesterday by Capt Vonenne, charged with robbing the Coffee house of Francisco Marquez, at the corner of St Ann and Old Levee streets, of $2,000 in money. $1,031 of the stolen money was found upon his person at the time of his arrest. Moran, who was a servant in the employ of Marquez, will be examined this morning before Recorder Genin.

☞ A female in a state of intoxication was arrested yesterday by the police of the First Municipality, charged with stealing a variety of articles of Mary Matilda O'Kane. A pair of gold ear rings, part of the stolen property was found upon her person at the time of her arrest.

☞ Joseph Marie Pineda and Joseph Marie Martinez, were yesterday sentenced by Recorder Genin, to thirty confinement in the workhouse, for fighting and cutting each other with cotton hooks, on the levee, the day previous.

☞ The charge preferred by Garret Bradly, an adopted citizen, against Mr Harper Gillingham, the Whig Inspector, at the July election, as the third ward, Second Municipality, for wilfully, corruptly, unlawfully and fraudulently refusing to receive his vote, was yesterday investigated before Recorder Baldwin. A number of witnesses were examined and after a short argument of Mr McHenry, the case was submitted to the Recorder. Mr R Hunt, counsel for the defence, waiving his privilege of reply. His Honor, decided that as there had been no testimony introduced to prove that Mr Gillingham, had acted under any fraudulent or corrupt motives, that he would dismiss the case.

☞ We shall probably have a goodly delegation from the River counties on the Mississippi, to attend the Baton Rouge Convention. The whigs of Concordia have engaged the steamer J. M. White, which will stop at Vicksburg, Grand Gulf and Natchez, for delegates.

Mr. DAVID HAYDEN entered yesterday upon the discharge of the duty as Surveyor of the Customhouse, and appointed Mr St. Cyr his deputy.

The Mediterranean leaves a few days ago that President Tyler had ever been a Whig Let that functionary answer for himself:

From the Speech of Mr. Tyler at the Whig Dinner, Washington, 1840

"I do declare, in the presence of my Heavenly judge, that the nomination given to me was neither solicited nor expected. I went to the Convention in honor of Henry Clay, and, to the defeat of the wishes of his friends, I am one of those, that is a member of nothing, even thought my name was associated with that of Harrison. I am a true and genuine whig, and in the capital yonder I have shown my love of Whig principles"

LETTER FROM MR. CLAY ON THE TARIFF.

It will be recollected that we published, some time since, the resolutions of a body, of Pennsylvania locofocos, declaring their intention to abandon Polk on account of his refusal to answer their letter requesting his opinions on the Tariff. A copy of the same letter was addressed to Mr. Clay, on the 24 inst., and after all hope of a reply from Mr. Polk was abandoned. Mr. Clay promptly returned the following answer. The gentlemen whom Mr. Clay's letter is addressed reside in Dickinson, Cumberland and Chester Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania read it, and judge whether Clay or Polk is the friend of the Protective Tariff

ASHLAND, 1st September, 1844.

"GENTLEMEN—I duly received your letter addressing two inquiries—First, are you in favor of the Tariff Act of 1842; and Second, would you, if elected, support that Act as it is, without modification, or would you be in favor of modifying it.

I have so often given my views, and my opinion in favor of the Tariff of 1842, that the only regret I feel is that you should deem it at all necessary to request this renewed expression of it. Nevertheless, I take pleasure in complying with your request, in saying that I am of opinion that the Tariff of 1842 has been extensively beneficial to the whole country, and that I am decidedly opposed to its repeal or modification, unless it should be found, by actual experience, that some other system will more equally and justly distribute the burdens and benefits of taxation throughout the country. I am not prepared to say that the Tariff of 1842 may not require some modifications, but
