Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun | Washington, July 8th, 1851 Honesty of Public Agents-The Gardne Mexican Claim—Accusations Unfounded—Projudiced Accusers, &c.—The public is always keenly sensitive in regard to the honesty of pub ic agents, and in regard to the purity of the the rumors in relation to the alleged Gardne fraud. But let the public beware, lest they b any one has got against him ! It is very eas We have had all that over and over, o

every stump, at every election.

It is my belief that the Gardner claim was no worse than the rest of the claims, and it is my pointon that it was got through without any very open, palpable and disgusting fraud or lorgery, or perjary. I am yet to learn any one lact that can bring the Gardner award under any particular suspicion. It was the best cleim before the board, except Leggeti's, but there are not wonting men who undertake to say that all the claims were fraudelent. This is rather too extravagant.

The Gardner was liberal to his agents, counsel, &c. It is went halves with them, and had to pay his debts, benders, out of his half. There are many worthy and respectable men in this city, and there is M. Porte, in New York, begiene, who think that in the distribution of Dr. every stump, at every election.

city, and there is M. Forte, in New York, besides, who think that in the distribution of Dr. Gardner's awards, they were improperly overlooked. I did not get any share of it, but still, as at present advised, I cannot unite with those who denounce Dr. Gardner and all his agents and coursel, Thomas Corwin included, as rogues and cheats.

In fine, I warn the public against stories industrically propagated in this city, and by mean of respectability, who actually buileve what they we. For instance, it is stated, that before the Grand Jury. Senor Cuesta gave teatimony that $22;00 was paid by Dr. Gardner to an Alcalde in Mexico, who got up and anthemicated his papers. Senor Cuesta denies the fact. He has stated nothing of the sort. But for the wait and see what testimony will be produced before the Grand Jury. They will said the thing.

In the mean time, let the public suspend their judgment as in anticidicals. They are old rogues for such twe know; but should we not presume them to be innocent, and some unprejudiced man shall say that they are gailty.
