From Guadaljara and Colima we have nothing late or important. The last advices represented the Bate of aliese to be in a terrible condition. The bands of Federalists that reassed unmodested ever the greater portion of the State were doing as they pleased—sacking, robbing, &c. The treeps of the government is Guadaljara, the capital of the State, had done nothing to represe these excesses. The Bate of Colima at last advices was quiet. It still remained storefast to the side of the Federalist, and had furnished a considerable force to march against the troops of the government.

The State of Collins at last advices was quited to the ride of the Federalista, and has furnished a considerable force to march against the troops of the government.
