NEW ORLEANS,
TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 24, 1863.

NOTES AT AURORA—TODAY.

By E. S. Franks, at 10 o'clock, at No. 54 Magazine street, corner of Magazine, and St. Charles, where he has been engaged for the past two years.

By G. P. Fisher, at 10 o'clock, at the Draying Press, corner of St. Charles and Chartres streets.

By E. Murphy, at 10 o'clock, at 47 Magazine street, corner of Magazine and St. Charles.

By T. M. Montgomery, at 10 o'clock, at the Home warehouse, on Fulton and New Orleans streets, about twelve hours, at 12 o'clock, at No. 93 Camp street, griseau, New Orleans, about 10 o'clock.

The Sheriff sells at auction this day, at 10 o'clock, P. M., at the corner of Customhouse and Villere streets, Second District, a lot of Household furniture and movable effects.

Four fury-lots of Sheep are offered for sale at auction this morning at 10 o'clock at the upper landing, by G. P. Phinney, for account of what it may concern. The terms of sale are cash in Treasury notes!

Our readers are referred to R. T. Montgomerу's article in this paper, this day, the 26th instant. At 11 o'clock, at Home Warehouse, Fulton street, will be sold, perspectively, 300 barrels choice extra flour, new and sound. The above offers a good opportunity to dealers, grain and flour bakers, to obtain a good supply of flour.

At 10 o'clock, at 47 Magazine street, a large old antique chest, 87 Camp street, a large choice of new wood, cutlery, ruse, also the usual sale of furniture and sundry goods.

On the Keystone State, they are very scarce. On the Augusta and Quaker City were both lost, and another is missing.

The Memphis was only struck in her right side, which made her drift to the left, and she was soon in the first rank in the list of her success. The second piece of the hull "Bastian in Paris," one of three brilliant French pieces, which is split with startling violence, and affects, and in which Mrs. Baker takes part of her beauty, was torn from the ship, and took refuge in the Swan channel, behind the shoals of the Mississippi, and was captured by the Union forces.

The Augustus and Quaker City were both
