Marmaduke is reported to have gained a great visitory at Pine Bluff, and to have eaptured four hundred homes. The truth is, Clayton gave Barmaduke a terrible threahing; killed and wounded 120 men, and drove him with three times Chayton's number in hance away. Clayton's lose was 11 killed and 23 wounded. Bixty Geventment moles were out loose by order of Opionel Clayton, to keep them from being hemsel sp, and come of them may be exceeded and goes to Marmaduke. The only lose of preparty was the bearing of a part of the town by Marmaduke, and the property mostly beinged to exceeded the This is Marmaduke's way of defeeding his friends.

THE GREAT BOSTORIAN EXCITEMENT.—The Boston people have had a sensation. The "Hob of the Universe" has been in a state of sociacy. It has not been about banquets and balls in honor of the Russians, nor about the elections, nor about sending, twenty or thirty thousand troops to the relief of Pennsylvania, nor shout anything of this kind. Their sensation was all about an organ, and may well be eaid to be organic in its way. The organ was inaugorated at their Music Hall, and so anxious were they that the place should be filled that they sent out invitations on all eides. They had no less than two or three hundred from New York Well, the organ was a very big one, and the afair allogather was a big one—for Boston, says the New York Herald.
