BY TELEGRAPH. What Will the Democrats Da? It has been asked, "What will the Democracy do if we belp to place them in power?"
The question is so well and appropriately answered and so satisfactorily sumed up by Gen. W. A. Gorman, of Minnesota, in a late speech that we insert the answer beer of if the Democracy get power in the Government, they will restore the tarifax on all your at tea, and what you drink and wear.

They will restore the Union, and turn over all the Southern States' expenses to be paid by the South slone. To the New Orleans Bee. FROM WARHINGTON, Congressional Proceedings.
