Rim-Your official report of the naval contest between a portion of your aquadron and that of the enemy in the Bicessippi river, on the 12th instant, has been received.

The conception and execution of this enterprise, by which, with a force inferior even to that of one of the enemy's fleet, you standed his four skips and doveryed, his preparations for its occupation, reflects the highest credit upon yourself and your command, and in expressing to you, and through you, to your officers and men, its high appreciation of the conspiceous his four ships and destroyed, his preparations for its occupation, reflects the highest credit upon yourself and your command, and in expressing to you, and through you, to your officers and men, its high appreciation of the conspicuous gallanny, ability and seal which marked the condest of all, the Department expresses the conviction that the effect and significance of your brilliant triumph, decisive and important as it was, rise far above its apparent results.

I am, respectfully, your obest servi,

Scovetary of the Brayy.

Grw. Price.—The Memphin Appeal of Wed.
needay has the fellowing:

Gen. James Harding, Quartermaster General of the army of Missouri, has arrived in the city, direct from Gen. Price's command to Neoshe, intelligence of which its responsed falling back of Gen. Price's command to Neoshe, intelligence of which we published in loar issue of the 26th, and expresses the opinion that the retorgrade movement of Price is only one of strategy for the purpose of foreing Fremont to extend his lines, and thereby weakening his strength.

Price's army is represented to be in the very bast condition and eager to engage the Woolly Hors.

The Secretary of War regiliae that it is due to
