

Office. THE WEEK IN MISSOURI.

Dispatches to the Black Republican Press.

[Special to the Missouri Democrat.]

St. Louis, October 28.—A man who came into the city yesterday reports that Price is moving to the north with a large force of men.

Price's men are reported to be in a dispirited mood, and that they are not likely to make any further progress.

The telegraph was completed yesterday between St. Louis and New Orleans.

At Overville there is still quite a number of the Twenty-first Indiana soldiers.

At Camp Lewis are stationed the Orleans, Blaine, Compans and the Missouri Guards.
