

The tetrasaccharide-protein conjugate is helpful to develop a vaccine and to detect anthrax.