FOR GOVERNOR: J. B. DAWSON.

Things to be remembered at the Polls. An Remember, that Edward D. White voted in favor of a law, calculated to bring distress and ruin upon the groat flourishing interest of our State. Remember, that we sent him to Congress to advocate our rights, and to represent our wants. Remember, that he sold the one and mocked at the other.

REMEMBER, that John B. Dawson was raised among us-that we have grown up together, from a dependent province to an independent Statethat he never deceived the confidence of his fellowci izens—in short, that he has ever been respected as a gentiemen, leved as a man, and honored as a SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

The fluid commenced its raveges at the top of one of the rhimneys and demolished it down to the top of the house. It then parted, and by many different directions followed the timber and other wood work so as to pervade every part of the wail, as well as every room and closet in the ilweiling, destroying in its course much of the furniture, and injuring clothing, bedding, 4c.
