THE CONFEDERATION.

WHO PLATFORM.

The series of acts of the Congresses of 1850, 1851, and 1852, and the platform of the Whigs in the United States, as far as they affect our country and its people, we will maintain and insist on their strict enforcement, and oppose every effort of further legislation to guard against the evasion of those acts, and to secure the full and entire exercise of their powers on the other—insuring their present efficiency to carry out the requirements thus settled, and an ample supply of revenue to meet the expenses of such efforts to continue, or to have, as far as practicable, as essential to the nationality of the Whig party, and the integrity of the Union.

EPICUREAN.

The Northern press through every state.

HONEST AND MANLY.

The Hon. W. H. Seward, and his colleagues in their states, while candidates for office, seek nothing better from them. Their counselees constitute a material part of their political forces. They are not to be despised.

To support us, to support our cause, and to support falsehood are means too often employed by the Democratic press—so often indeed, that it has become a matter of course, and almost a law of the party, to do so.

And, as far as we are concerned, we are not to be despised.
