PANORAMA EXHIBITION.

THE great Panoramic picture of the City of Paris, the Capital of the Kingdom of France, is now exhibiting in the building on the public square of Rampart street.

The view is taken from the roof of the south end of the palace of the Tuilleries, the spectator must therefore imagine himself placed on this elevated situation which commands an extensive prospect over the whole city.

Immediately under the eye of the spectator in a northern direction, is the roof of the King's apartments, and on the right that of the long picture gallery stretching eastward as far as the Louvre.

This gallery bounds the place de la Concorde on the south side, and the new gallery on the north, in the centre of this square is seen the triumphal arch.

On this square Bonaparte was wont to review his battalions previous to their departure for their respective destinations, and here off the walls resounded with the clang of martial music.
