TO BE HELD AT BATON ROUGE ON THE FIRST MONDAY IN OCTOBER.

At the CLAY CLUB CONVENTION, held at Baton Rouge on Monday the 19th August, 1844, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That there be a GRAND MASS CONVENTION OF THE WHIGS OF LOUISIANA AT BATON ROUGE ON MONDAY THE 7TH DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT.

Resolved, That the Clay Club of Baton Rouge be charged with making all the necessary arrangements for the reception of and whig mass convention.

Resolved, That the Whigs of the adjoining States be and they are hereby invited to attend said convention.

Resolved, That a STATE BANNER be procured by the Central Whig Club of New Orleans, which shall be presented on the whige of the parish which shall give the LARGEST MAJORITY, a proportion to the whole number of legal votes of such parish, for Henry Clay and Theodore Frelinghuysen, as President and Vice President of the United States.

WARD ORGANIZATION.

By reference to our columns it will be seen that the whigs of the Fourth Ward, Second Municipality, have called a meeting, THIS EVENING for the purpose of establishing a Ward Association, directing their organization and adopting all honorable means to secure their success at the coming Presidential election. This is a highly judicious movement on the part of the whigs of that benighted district. It shows unflattering and determined spirit, which no efforts of our opponents, or accumulation of majorities can subdue. We trust that every whig voter and resident of the Ward will be at the post this evening, to sign the Constitution of the Club.

We call upon the other Ward to follow the noble example set by their brethren of the Fourth, and we tell the whigs that enthusiastic and sanguine as they may be, their zeal will avail them but little, unless it be properly directed, and unless athorough system of organization be at once carried out in every electoral precinct in the city. We already perceive that the locofoco party have anticipated us in this matter in nearly every Ward of the three Municipalities,—they have gone to work with their usual unobjectionable perseverance, and with that courage which sustains them in the midst of disaster and defeat, in their political Ward associations, and effect concert of action and undivided harmony among their party. They will undoubtedly give us a hard battle in November, and as parties in Louisiana are nearly equally divided it may not improbably happen that the vote of the city of New Orleans will decide the result in this State. Under these circumstances, the whigs have a plain, simple duty before them. They must organize Clay Clubs in every Ward in the city. While the general acceptance of the party may be very properly left to the Central Club, the minor but most important details which are embraced in every system of thorough organization, can alone be carried into effect by the Ward Associations. We therefore invoke our brethren I begin the good work in season. The Presidential election is less than sixty days off. If the whigs think they are to defeat locofocoism in Louisiana without a struggle, bitter will be their disappointment. Our opponents know how close will be the contest in this State, and are well aware that the change of a few hundred votes will decide it in favor of one or the other party. Here they are resting with an indolent gaelic seal and an idor and perseverance not exceeded in any other Site. On the other hand, while our brethren all over the union are exhibiting the most cheering evidences of edegth, enthusiasm and the resolution to conquer, we also in Louisiana appear comparatively supine. This must not be. Arouse fellow whigs. Buckle on your armor, and prepare in a manner for the decisive struggle.

Which of the thirteen Wards aforesaid the city is divided will first follow the glorious example set them by the whigs of a locofoco precinct? Both are worthy, are left to us for preparations. WHIGS BE PROMPT. BE ACTIVE. BE ENERGETIC. ORGANIZE—RALLY—ENROL.

☞ As the locofoco party are remarkably fond of quoting the New York Herald as fair and impartial paper, we commend to their consideration the following brief extract from its leader of the 2d inst:

"It is, however, as clear as the sn at noonday, that the whigs have the majority in it country, and one always carry it whenever point they my please, provided they be united."

ANOTHER CHALLE.

We are authorized by a responsible individual to offer a wager of one hundred dollps that Tennessee, New York and Pennsylvania will cast their electoral votes for HENRY CLAY: that 4 $ 00 on each State. The take to be privileged to accept the three bets separately, or any one or two of them at his option. While on this subject, we may as well add that the wager proposed in the Courier of $00 that Pennsylvania would vote for POLK was taken almost as soon as offered.

☞ We are glad to perceive that Mr. RHETT's atrocious project of disunion has been rebuked by a portion of his own constituents. Therefore some choice spirits in South Carolina yet—men bore affection for the Union is not to be shaken by the blustering of the political Hotspurs of that State. A dinner was given to Mr. RHETT by the citizens of St Peters, a few days ago at which the toasts and sentiment breathed nothing but nacorous hostility to the Union. During the repast a gentleman—a candidate for the Legislature—was toasted. He was known to have no sympathy with the rebellious designs of RHETT and his confederates, and was therefore very uncourteously precluded from the right of responding to the toast. Thereupon, a considerable portion of the guests left the table, returned to an adjoining house, where a meeting was organized, several patriotic speeches made, and a number of sentiments in favor of the Union written out and sent to the Charleston Courier for publication.

INDIANA.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer, speaking of Indiana, says:—Our recent majority is no indication of what we shall do in November. Five thousand is the minimum vote by which the State will be carried for CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN, granting that the abolitionists continue to adhere to their separate organization. If these men, however, throw in a very large portion who, from the nature of the overshadowing Texas issue, is support of their own integrity, must vote against the Polk ticket. There are cheering indications also of a fair appreciation of whig principles among our fellow-citizens of foreign birth. The late contest was greatly controlled to our prejudice by local causes, especially in Southern Indiana which should have increased our majority nearly two-fold in the Legislature, and which will be "right side up" in the fall."

TRICKS ON THE ENEMY.—There are many changes from the locofoco to the whig ranks in Tennessee. Recently in East Tennessee, Bradford R. Cloudin, Esq., hitherto one of the leaders of locofocoism in Monroe county, was called for. "He said he had long been a member of the democratic party, and had a great many things to tell on them, and he didreveal them, too, and among the rest, not the least important was the fact of the agreement that, if Clay had come out for the immediate annexation of Texas, then the democrats were to oppose it with the same zeal as they now display favorably to it.

☞ We are indebted to MORSE, of the Literary Depot, Exchange Place, for a pamphlet entitled "The Mormons in Illinois; with an account of the late disturbances, which resulted in the assassination of Joseph and Hyrum Smith, the Prophet and Patriarch of the Latter-Day Saints," by G. W. Westbrook. It is a publication of considerable interest, but somewhat one-sided and partial in its views.

WORMS IN COTTON.—The last Arkansas Gazette, says—We learn with regret that the army worm has made its appearance in a number of cotton fields in this parish, which they are ravaging to a great ease. In the course of a few days, we suppose that the whole country will be invaded by them.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

RECORDER'S COURT—Second Municipality—James Quinn, charged with stealing a bolt of cottonade was yesterday examined before acting Recorder Caldwell and sentenced to six months imprisonment in the work house.

John Murphy, charged with stealing a barrel of eggs from on board of the steamer Thibodeaux, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the workhouse.

Thomas Kelly, arrested for stealing carpenter's tools from on board of the steamer St. Louis, was remanded for further examination.

James Murphy, an old offender, was sentenced to 30 days imprisonment in the workhouse under the vagrant law.

THE WHIGS of the City of Philadelphia have nominated the Hon. JOSEPH R. INGERSOLL for re-election to Congress.

THE SCOAR HOUSE of Messrs. Dugas, of Fausse Pointe, parish of St Martins, was destroyed by fire, on the 23d ult. It is presumed to have been the work of an incendiary.

THE WHIGS of St. Mary are to hold a public meeting on the 7th instant, for the purpose of forming a Clay Club at Centreville, the whig candidate for the Senate, is to address the meeting.

THE STEAMER BRILLIANT, was hauled out of the Dry Dock yesterday at noon and now lies in the river along side of the Dock. The damage done to her hull is not as great as was at first anticipated. We understand she will be immediately repaired and resume her regular trips in the Bayou Sara trade.

Hensley made a speech in Madison lately, in which in reply to the charge that the locofocos had no principles, accept a general opposition to whig principles, he asserted that they have at least one, and that is, never to support a democrat.

Well, this proves that the democracy is very "progressive. In 1828 and 1832 they voted for a man who was convicted of manslaughter in a duel, but they have "progressed" far beyond that now.—Louisville Journal.

NIAGARA.—The Cataract County in the Empire State made a whig demonstration on the 22d, in the shape of a Mass Convention of twelve or fifteen thousand persons at Lockport. It was a magnificent affair, one-sixth of those present being ladies. Addresses were made by the Hon. Washington Hunt, Hon. S. C. Hawley, Dr. Kelsey, Messrs. Holley, Allen and other gentlemen. True to another token of the whig spirit in New York. The locos say the whigs give up the State. This is the way the whigs respond to the only falsehood.

A CHANCE FOR THE BRAGGERS.

We copy the following proffer of a wager from the Plaquemine (Iberville) Gazette. Here is a chance for those locofocos who are so confident that Polk will be elected:

"A WHIG"

Offers the following bets. $100 that Mr. Polk will not receive at the next Presidential election 47 votes; $100 on his not receiving 52 votes; $100 on 62 votes; $100 on 72 votes; $100 on 82 votes; $100 on 92 votes; $100 on 102 votes; $100 on 112 votes, $100 on 122 votes; $100 on 132 votes, and $100 on his not receiving 142 votes; and $500 that for each and every vote that will be cast for Mr Polk, there will be cast for Mr Clay two votes; Provided, that the party taking these bets, will also bet a whig majority of 10 in the Congressional District in Louisiana, and the election of a whig Legislature. Next succeeded North Carolina—when a locofoco majority of 24 in the Legislature was substituted by a whig majority of 24. There came Indiana, where a locofoco majority of 10 in succeeded by a whig majority of 10. Besides these gains of entire States, the whigs have gained immensely in several Congressional elections—in fill various one, which have taken place during the year, in Maine, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania—the latest being the result of the recent startling developments in Missouri.

EVERY WHERE PUT, WHIGS HAVE GAINED, AND ARE GAINING! That is the great and impressive truth which sends the cold iron to the hearts of locofocoism. The whigs have gained in every State. States, which never stood with them, except in 1840, are again arrayed on their side.

THE WHIGS HAVE EVERY WHERE GAINED, AND ARE GAINING! Let that great truth resound through the land to cheer whig patriots, and soak the hearts of locos.

A WHIG BALL.—The gallant whigs of Natchez had a splendid torch light procession on Saturday night.—Conspicuous in the crowd was an immense whig Ball seventeen feet high, mounted on wheels. It was illuminated, and bore the following names, mottoes, &c.—Clay, Frelinghuysen and the American Union being painted around the sides:

Maine—Evans is faithful.
Vermont—The star that never sets.
New Hampshire—Shake, awake."
Rhode Island—No Dorrism, no mobocracy.
Massachusetts—Ever faithful.
Connecticut—Right side up.
New York—Truth is our weapon.
New Jersey—Irrefrogible.
Pennsylvania—Keystone to the federal arch.
Delaware—Often tried, never beaten.
Maryland—All's well!
Virginia—Come to the rescue."
North Carolina—Old North State, awake."
South Carolina—Hoist our standard."
Georgia—Hurrah for Clay, Frelinghuysen and union.
Alabama—We'll go it.
Mississippi—We do go it.
Louisiana—We'll never yield.
Arkansas—Sound on the goose quill."
Tennessee—Polk can't chase here.
Kentucky—CLAY.
Indiana—No Polk here!
Ohio—Remember Harrison.
Michigan—We're coming.
Missouri—We echo the voice of our protector."

COL. STONE'S GRAVE.—The Saratoga correspondent of the Republic declares that the neglected and long lamented good stonge has undergone a thorough repair, a succeeded grove where the sun never shines has been cut down to admit its westward course and a pervading peace. It is a fit sepulchre for the bottom of the Red Man."

[From the Pittsburg Banner.]

HALF OF THE WEST.

When we fill high to the toast,
And our souls are all up—
Mount the song and the steed and the song and the toast
There's one pledge must not be forgotten,
'Tis the man so worthy most—the man we love most.

If the toast were to her,
Whom of names we prefer
And from all hearts the bumper should flow,
Whose glorious name is a watch-word for fame
There not any [illegible] ready to tell
But the choice we'd select,
While the flow soul is in it,
It is every guest—[illegible] queen!
For it could not be half of the wave—the favorite
That is Half of the West.

The Union should,
Caught sun lately, we are told,
And there's reason to fear it [illegible] some—tought them his name
Over the earth far and wide,
They might speak of his fame—speak of his fame

Half thousands at each bidding,
You will know the world in—
Ready to [illegible] Half of the West—should be Half of the West.
For the name it will [illegible]
Over [illegible] in fame!
The combat's begun,
Harry's visor is on,
And for attaining his crest—far streaming his crest
That shall wave o'er the world,
The brave world of the West—the brave world of the West.

Then up with the toast,
Here's the man we love most,
May each joy fill his breast—each joy fill his breast.
And each honor his due,
Here's Half of the West—so here's Half of the West
Mr Clay.

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 27th August last, at eight o'clock A M, in the thirty fourth year of his age, JEAN BAPTISTE THOMAS VOLTE, a planter in the parish of St John the Baptist.

He was charitable and liberal, a generous friend, a sincere friend—in short he possessed every virtue which can adorn the character of a good man. His death is deplored by numerous circle of friends and by all who knew him to appreciate a worth. He has surely gone to a world more suitable to his amiable mother to await her bereavement.
