SCHOOLS.

MR. MONCENOT, Professor of Dancing, recently arrived, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that he will give private lessons in this delightful art. He will teach the newest and most graceful steps; likewise waltzing. Mr. M. not having the honor of being known, is desirous of showing either in a school, or to a number of young persons, for the purpose of proving that by means of this new method he will enable all persons who are at all disposed to dance as well as walks with grace and facility in thirty lessons. Those who may be desirous of learning fancy dances, as the Gazotte, Anglaise, Cossack, and all the steps belonging to these dances, together with dancing every step the summer, may acquire them by applying to him.

Price $8 per month—Three lessons per week, twelve tickets at $12. Those who are willing to honour him with their confidence, are requested to write directed to his dwelling, 203, corner of St Philip and Dauphin streets, where he will give lessons on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The mornings from 10 to 12 o'clock are devoted to the Ladies. The afternoons from 4 to 7 are devoted the Gentlemen.
