

NEW-ORLEANS BEE

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT.

BY HULL, MAGNE & CO.

FOR THE GOVERNOR

HENRY JOHNSON.

NEW-ORLEANS

TUESDAY MORNING, SEP. 14, 1864.

THE CHARITY HOSPITAL.

The report of the committee on the affairs of the Charity Hospital, which was presented to the Legislature on the 10th inst., has elicited some interest and discussion. It is an unfortunate fact, and one which is not to be regretted, that the hospital is in a state of such destitution, and that the management is so defective, that it is necessary to resort to extraordinary measures for its support. It is a matter of regret, that the Legislature has not been able to provide for the hospital's needs, and that the management is so

defective, that it is necessary to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that the Legislature has not been able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

GOVERNMENT

The report of the committee on the

affairs of the Charity Hospital, which

was presented to the Legislature

on the 10th inst., has elicited some

interest and discussion. It is an

unfortunate fact, and one which

is not to be regretted, that the

hospital is in a state of such

destitution, and that the

management is so defective, that

it is necessary to resort to

extraordinary measures for its

support. It is a matter of

regret, that the Legislature

has not been able to provide

for the hospital's needs, and

that the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

hospital's needs, and that

the management is so

defective, that it is necessary

to resort to extraordinary

measures for its support.

It is a matter of regret, that

the Legislature has not been

able to provide for the

BY AUTHORITY

LAW OF THE UNITED STATES

PASSED AT THE FIRST SESSION OF THE

THIRTY-SECOND CONGRESS,

IN SENATE, FEBRUARY 2, 1864.

AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT TO PROVIDE

FOR THE REGISTRATION OF

LANDS BELONGING TO THE

UNITED STATES.

SECTION 1. That all lands

belonging to the United States shall be registered in the office of the General Land Office, and the records therein shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein.

SECTION 2. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 3. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 4. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 5. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 6. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 7. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 8. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 9. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

which are not already

registered.

SECTION 10. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the office

of the General Land

Office, all lands

belonging to the United States

STATE OF LOUISIANA

AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT TO

PROVIDE FOR THE

REGISTRATION OF

LANDS BELONGING TO THE

STATE.

SECTION 1. That all lands

belonging to the State of Louisiana shall be registered in the office of the General

Land Office, and the records therein shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein.

SECTION 2. That the

Secretary of the Interior

shall cause to be

registered in the

office of the General

Land Office, all lands belonging to the State of Louisiana which are not already registered.

SECTION 3. That the