ADDITIONAL FOREIGN NEWS.
The New York papers of Sunday le lish inst which doubtless constain full accounts by the Combrio, failed to arrive by yesterday's mail.
Fortunately, however, the Boltimore papers came through, bringing a tolerably ample Telegraphic summary of the news. The following esourches are from the Sun of the 15th. It an evening of the 13th, as previously reported: New York, May 14th, 10 r. m.

BATTLE BETWEEN THE DANES AND BOLSTEINERS.

The fortunes of Charles Albert appear t almost as fatal to his army as defeat. A critical moment for his family has also arisen in Sicciay. The House of Commons met on the 13th. After a preliminary discussion as to whether it was expedient to call to the throne an Italian Prince of the family of Tuscany, or Saxony, it was at length decided amidst most enthusiastic applause, that Ferdinand Bourbon and dynasty be forever driven from the throne of Sicily, and that Sicily shall govern herself. Spain.

In Spain matters are steadily progressing to-wards an outbreak. The utter absence of all constitutional government must soon provoke the people to a rebellion, hogyer-attached to their present form of government.

Lord Patinerston has addressed a letter thro-Mr. Balwer to the Spanish immutry, and his address gives such unbrage to Narvaez's cabinet, that Duke Sotomanon sent a letter back to Mr. Bulwer, with strong expressions of rudeness and contempt.

Portugal.

Portugal seems on the eve of some serious movement. Publications are extensively circulated, in which are canvassed the abdication of the Queen in favor of liter son, a new dynasty, and even a Repeblic. The latter form of Go-

Deplorable accounts from Baden have been received. The insurgents intimated that they washed to capitulate to the force sent against them, but would treat with none but the general in command, uniese General Liagren advanced from Schliengen, which insurgents had evacuated, to Gandern, which they occupied. The chivalrous warrior exhorted the robels to obey the voice of the law, but they refused to listen to how counsels, and, as he retired, was most treacherously shot and mortally wounded by three balls.

The troops, exasperated to see their Chief basely slaughtered, fell upon the insurgents and campletely routed them, leaving a great number dead upon the field. The troops kept up the pursuit, and encountered another party, headed by Stropa, which they also attacked and routed, when the put of the registered really.

PHILAUSERIA, May 14th, P. E.

The intention of the King of Sardinia, to abandon the war of independence rather than consent to the establishment of a republic in Lumbardy, is confirmed.

We are told, upon tolerably good authority, that a considerable number of Mexicans themselves are utivy to, and warmly in favor of the proposed Republic.
