

NO. 178.

STATE PAPER, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1833.

VOL. VII.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE OF THE CITY ZENS BANK OF LOUISIANA.

EXHIBITION OF THE LINT AND GLASS BLEWING & SPINNING MACHINES.

At the corner of Conti street. Entrance to the right of Mr. Fauve's respectively intended to be exhibited. From a short time, his citizens will have an opportunity to see those who are interested in the machines. But the exhibition will be discontinued. The cost of the exhibition will be defrayed by the exhibitor, with an expense of $1000, which is not limited as to the number of days it will be continued, until stopped, at the expense of the exhibitor.

The

exhibitor will be those who contract with the country

will be received unless by post

agent

to whom application is made for payment.

Postage

in all cases

will be

post

paid.

Amusements.

EXHIBITION OF THE

LINT AND GLASS BLEWING & SPINNING MACHINES.

At the corner of Conti street. Entrance to the right of Mr. Fauve's respectively intended to be exhibited. From a short time, his citizens will have an opportunity to see those who are interested in the machines. But the exhibition will be discontinued. The cost of the exhibition will be defrayed by the exhibitor, with an expense of $1000, which is not limited as to the number of days it will be continued, until stopped, at the expense of the exhibitor.

The exhibitor will be those who contract with the country will be received unless by post agent to whom application is made for payment.

Postage in all cases will be post paid.

MARSHAL'S SALES.

JOHN DAUNOY vs. C. W. MERRILL.

MARSHAL'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of fieri facias to me directed by the honorable Citizens Bank of Louisiana: Notice is hereby given, that the book for the subscription to the stock, will be opened on Tuesday the 30th instant, at Mr. John Daunoy's house, in Royal street, No. 175, between St. Louis and St. Peter streets, and remain open every day from 10 o'clock A.M., until 3 o'clock P.M., for the period of four months, ending on Friday the 2d day of August.

It is declared "that it shall be in good order within the city of New Orleans, to all persons who shall be entitled to the ownership and possession of real estate, and to all bodies corporate and politic, unincorporated sherto, law, to become the capital stock of said bank."

§ 94.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged 1 year, an American girl, fair complexion and features, and a good cook.

L. DAUNOY, marshal.

John J. Chenev vs. Ignatius G. Dufour, April 28, 1833.

SALE BY THE REGISTER OF WILLS.

COURT OF PROBATES.—Sale by the Register of Wills.—Will be exposed for sale at Hewlett's coffee house, on Thursday the 6th day of May next, at noon, account of the succession of the late Elizabeth East, both first, widow of David Ross, and by second marriage, widow of Charles Patton, the following described land, property, slaves and stock, to wit:

1st. That valuable parcel of ground, forming the corner of Conti and Dauphine streets, which will be divided into building lots, and a plan exhibits proposed to divide this property to be first offered in block with the buildings and improvements thereto, and if sold in this manner, it will be offered in lots according to the plan, and the buildings sold separately, with condition to be removed within fifteen days from the day of sale.

2d. SLAVES.

Maria, a negro, aged 22 years, with two children, Caroline, 5 years and Alfred 3 years, born and brought up in the family, a very superior worker, strong, plump, and tolerable cook, of excellent disposition.

Eliza, a negro, aged 22 years, with her child, Charles, aged