Liverpool dates to the 27th May, London to the 26th and Paris to the 24th have been received by yesterday's mail, by the way of New York. The papers of that city give copious extracts from which we have selected the most important. It appears that the hostilities between Belgium and Holland had been terminated and that this late power had offered to relibquish its rights on the duchy of Luxembourg, provided it obtains an indemnity.-Misunderstanding seems to prevail between Austria and France: Metternich having declared that he will be the sole arbiter of the fate of Italy-In France serious apprehensions were entertained on account of the disposition of the province of La Vendée; iffeir inhabitants being mostly in favour of the old dominion. (To Vie 1. lit r of the National Journal.) Sir: A have son your call for information open the subject of the entertainment held at the President's, by a collection of colored people. Like many others, I confess I was incredulous when this subject was first mentioned, but the manner in which it was announced in the Journal, and the silence of those who were competent to know the truth, induced me to make inquiries, the result of which, as no one else has offered any, are at your service.

So far as I can learn, the following relied upon. During the month of March last, one of the colored servants at the palace made application to the President's Steward for permission to collect a few of their acquaintances and begged leave to use for the purpose of enter-taining them one of the rooms of the mansion. The Steward declined acceding to the request, but referred the applicant to the President himself. The Greatest and Best saw the thing in a different light, and vielded to the solicitation, and with great condescension offered the choice of either of the apartments for the purpose. The modesty of the negroes prevented them from selecting the splendid East Room for the occasion, and they contented themselves with the public dining room in the South-west corner of the palace. It is said when the result of the application was communicated to the anxious expectants, the pillars of the mansion trembled with the shouts of applause which burst forth for Old Hickory.

I am informed that, at the suggestion of the President himself, and to preserve the entire harmony of the affair, the state carriage was employed to distribute the notes of invitation to the opproaching festival; and so deep a sense was entertained of this honor, that one of the ladies who had been invited verbally, refused to attend, because she had been treated with less ceremony than others. Having taken the thing in hand the President himself directed the preparations for the entertainment. The wines, liquors, confectionary, &c. &c. were of the most expensive kind, and the same silver, cut glass, cups, saucers, and plates, which were ordinarily used at the diplomatic entertainments were produced and used, and three days after again employed at a diplomatic ball given by the President. Every thing went on with the usual dignity and harmony exhibited in the palace, antil abou 11 e'cleck Major Lewis made his appearance upon the stage. Astonished at this new scene in high life obove stairs, he interrogated some of the chief dignitaries on the occasion, and was informed that it was sanctioned and authorized by the President himself. He enquired if Mr. Adams had ever set such a precedent, and when he learned he never had, and that Mr. A. had no slaves in his house, he exclaimed in the agony of bitterness. "We are rulined, ruined—it will spread from Georgia to Maine." He could Praga from Radzomyn, and even from Teponot comprehend what " malign influence" had rent, but the report has not since been confirm.

The hostilities between Relgium and Holland threatened. At the sitting of the Belgic Congress, on the 19th of May, an account of some negociations with General Chasse, the Dutch gians at Antiverp would cease the works they have been assiduously carrying on, and withdraw the French nor American squadrons had arrived of the fort, leaving every thing in its present state, with merely a guard to prevent the populace from doing mischief. The Regent, in consequence, addressed an order to the troops in ing St. Laurent. The London Morning Chro-nicle, of May 24th, has accounts from Brussels find the following paragraph:

"The Belgiuns have broken the conditions of understanding between them and Gen. Chasse, at Antwerp, and bad gone on with their entrenchments, in consequence of which the General government might have pretended and without had again threatened to bombard the town. As having acquired one new liberty or effected one the Belgians persisted, many of the most respectable inhabitants fled to Bergen op Zoom. Letters from the latter place, written several hours afterwards, do not announce any cannonading.' In the mean time, the five great powers have taken upon themselves to settle the dispute of boundary between Belgium and Holland, on the one hand, and Belgium and Prussia on the other. Several protocols have been issued, of two of which the following account is given. "The first of these protocols, lays down the principle that any country may regulate its inwar of extermination—a war maintained by an respect to the frontiers, the protocol of June 20th is preserved, with considerable modification. Besides Dutch Flanders, which is to be united with Belgium, it will also probably obtain Luxemberg for a pecuniary consideration : and perhaps, even the whole of Limburg, except Maestricht. All these arrangements are the result of tance of which would cost him his throne and voluntary treaties made by the parties interested, and if the other Government have contributed. it is not officially. The second protocol has not yet been communicated to M. Surley DE CHOKIER, but we believe we know its nature, which is an intimation to Congress, in the na me of the Great Powers, to accept the limits determined by them, and give the country a definite settlement before the 1st of June, failing which, the Government represented at London will cease all political relations with the new State, and will recall their Representatives. Luxemberg is stated at a capital vielding 400,000 florins; and Belgium, notwithstanding this exorbitant demand, is disposed to acquiesce. For Limburg, half the sum is required making to-gether a yearly income of 1,200,000 france."

Meeling of Parliament .- It will be seen by our Ceancery report that the Lord Chancellor stated this morning, that Parliament would not be able to proceed with business before the 21st of June, but that in all probability it would continue its sitting to a late period of the year. The time from the 14th June to the 21st will be necessarily accupied in administering the oaths to Members, and discting a Speaker.

Result of the Elections.—The Courier of Wednesday evening gives a summary of the returns. The result is 385 votes in favour of reform, and 251 against it—majority 134. The Courier classes amongst the anti-reformers all whose votes are in any degree doubtful; so that it is probable the majority is underrated. The returns have yet to be made from 21 places in Scotland, returning 21 members, add from Pembrokespire, returning two.

CHAMP D'ELYSEE COFFEE HOUSE AND CONFECTIONARY.

The undersigned having purchased the house at the corner of Levee & Rail Road streets immediately at the upper end of the Ponchartrain Rail Road, has left no pains untried, nor spared any expense, to make his house an elegant and comfortable place of resort for the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans. The lower part is ince opened the lat of July instant as a Coffee House for gentlemen; the upper part is devoted to ladies and family parties, where they will be supplied with iced lemonades, ice creams, confectionary, coffee and every kind of refreshment. The wines and liquors purchased for his establishment are of the first quality, and he has secured such Barkeepers and watters as, he feels assured, vill give general satisfaction. The house is so happily situated as to command not only two third of the vista of the Rail Road, but the most beautiful and picturesque views of the oity, river and shipping up and down.
