A LETTER FROM GENERAL HARRISON. Rend and hand the paper to your next neighbor.
We tay before the people of Louisiana a correspon ence between General Harrison and James Lyon me of the whig electors for Virginia, which must fe spect to General HARRISON's opinions upon the slave uestion. We invite for it the most careful perusal nd here that the friends of a persecuted and stainless patriot will bestir themselves in giving it an extensive irculation. Truth must have lost its influence upo circulation. Truin must nave lost its innuence upon the hearts of uses, and reason become obliterated by the fierceness of party prejudices, if the charge of abo-litionism is ever again made by his ensuries, or a doubt as to his entire orthodoxy upon this topic, linger in the mind of any man whatever. We do not expect the conductors of the loc press to moderate their violence against General Flan RISON, or retracten accusation which has not the slight est foundation in truth. Indeed, judging from the nast, they will become more furious in their denuncia one; but the people, those even who are opposed to the old soldier, will rejoice at the unequivocal mann which he has again asserted his therough hostilit

o abolitionism.

We will not detain our readers longer. A rich ence put a finisher upon the abolition calumny, bu it at the same time vindicates Gen. HARRISON from the charge of federalism, and seatters to the wind the moutation of his being in the hands of conscience keepers. Read it and hand it to your next neighbor RICHMOND, April 11th, 1840.

My Dear Sir: When I received your letter of the 14th April, I was very unwell with a violent cold in the head, which terminated in intermittent neuralgia, or wun pain, as it is commonly called, which was so ome time to do very little in that way. When I refearful a mass that I have not yet been able to ge keeping committee. reaches you. In relation to the discussion between Mr. Randolph and myself in the senate, of which write than the garbled account which they have given of that discussion? If the charge made upon me by Mr. Randolph is authentic, taken from a newspaper dolph made no reply to my answer to his attack, and that he was not a man to leave a matter in that situa was never afterwards interrupted. In reply to you inquiry, as to my connection with the old federal pa ty, I will state to you the circumstances under which tendered to him my resignation as his sid-de-came but he declined receiving it, saying he could very we dispense with my services in his journey. It was du Washington to give me a civil appointment, as I had expressed my determination to leave the army. This expressed my determination to leave the army. This promise, the president repeated to my brother, Carter B. Harrison, then in congress, with some very kind remarks upon my conduct in the army. When Grn Washington left the presidency, I have reason to believe that he obtained a promise from Mr. Adama to fulfil his intentions. When the office of the secretar Western Territory became vacant, N Adams appointed me, although I was opposed by Col. selected by the Republican party of the territorial legislature to be their candidate for the appointment of legate to congress. Between Mr. Arthur St. Clair ir. (the son of Gov. St. Clair.) the federal candidat and myself, the votes were divided precisely as the two parties stood in the legislature, with the exception of one republican, who was induced by his regard for the governor to vote for his son. The vote was 11 to 10. not one of the 9 federalists voting for me. Before Heft Cincinnati, the republican members made me promise not to suffer my known opposition to the measures of the administration to interfere with the attainment of the great object for which I was sent. Upon my arrival in Philadelphia, I was received by Mr. Adams in the most flattering manner. At his dinner parties, where I was often a guest, he seemed to take great pleasure in speaking of my father's services in the revolutionar congress, relating many anecdotes to show his devo tion to the cause, and the effect which his pleasantrie produced in cheering them in the gloom, which the occasionally unpromising state of their affairs often produced. I had no conversation with Mr. Adams on politics, farther than to explain to him my views in relation to the change in the system of selling the pub-ic lands, which I was glad to find he approved. As soon as the law was passed for the division of the soon as the law was passed for the division of the North Western Territory, I was informed that it was the intention of Mr. Adams to nominate me to the government of Indiana. I hesitated not a moment to eclare that I would not accept it, although very muc pressed to do so by several leading federal members o congress. I was not long in discovering the motives of those gentlemen. There had been some meetings of the people of the territory, in which resolutions had been adopted recommending me to the president for the government of the territory, (North Western) in stead of Gov. St. Clair. Those resolutions, with correspondent addresse ad been forwarded to the President and Senate. Now it so happened that two distinguished senator had fixed their eyes upon the same office. One o them, who had been most urgent for me to go to Ina member in Richmond, in the year 1791, instead of the word "Humane," which is known to be the one by which the society was really distinguished?—All that I can say upon the subject is, that if I did really term it an Abolition Society, a fact which I can still hardly believe, [for I have not been able to see the paper containing my address to the people of the district in 1992, I answer that his father was actively engaged in 1992, I smost have been from forgetfulness, which might easily happen after a lapse of 31 years. At any rate, the word Abolition was not understood to mean ed, but I have no objection that the facts should be stated, and reference made to me as having fernished them.

I have written to a friend in Congress, Mr. Joseph Williams, of Tennessee, showing the connexion which existed between the Hamilton county Corres pending Committee and myself, and authorised hi to make it public.

I was about to make some further obwhen I was interrupted by a party of gentlemen from Louisville, and must conclude by assuring you thr Very truly, yours, W. H. HARRISON.

CELEBRATION AT FORT MEIGS. The following letter from the editor of the Cinci nati Republican, who was present on the glorious or husiasm that prevailed. LETTER FROM THE EDITOR. Dear Sir—We have just a moment, as the bost touches here on the way to Cleaveland, to say a few words as to the celebration at Fort Meiges. You shall have an extended account trout Cleveland, including the Control aspects.

words as to the celebration at Fort Meigs. You shall have an extended account from Clereland, including the General's speech.

It is impossible to convey any adequate idea of the enthusiastic feeling that prevaited as we left this city, and especially as the Geograf entered Perrysburgh.—His reception at the Fort on yesterday, was such as the most elevated Roman might have been proud to receive in the best days of that Republic. Fourteen States were represented—Michigan alone sending not less than 5,000. 20 of the larger class of boats, and some others, were employed, and some of them made repeated trips. More than 400 wagoos arrived at the encamping ground on the evening of the 10th, and it is ascertained that 20,000 were taken up in the boats. The whole number was near 40,000, embracing about 2,000 troops in usid-rm. More than 350 flags and mottoes were counted.

The General's address was worthy of his best days. Mr. Cook, of this city, was the orator of the day. Mr. Ewing, Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, Mr. Bates, of Michigan, Maj. Clarkson and Col. Todd, who had served under General Harrison, were called upon by the immense crowd to address them, all of whom responded to the call. The States represented, were Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Virginia, Pennal Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Virginia, Pennal Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Virginia, Pennal Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Virginia, New York, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode lafand, Mrythaud and New Jersey.

From the Baltimore Petrid. THE FORGED CLACULAR-JESTING. A public meeting was held at Columbus, Ohio, on the 30th dit, in reference to the vile forgery lately committed there, and intended to "fourte to the bene-fit of the Van Buren party. It seems that the hand-writing upon some of these circulars, as directed it distant presons, led to the detection of the author, who proves to be a certain James O. Brayman, a Van Bu-ren man, and late a reporter and contributor for the prows to be a certain James O. Brayman, a Van Buren man, and late a reporter and contributor for the Ohio Bulletin, a Van Buren paper. From a report of the committee appointed to investigate the matter this Brayman has, it appears, confrised the forgery. With a view to palliste the enormity of the offence, be says that he had at first plared a fictitious signature to the forged circular. But this way, he proposed sending it out "as a jest." But another friend of Van Buren, a Mr. Elleworth, of Licking, to whom he showed the circular, said that the jest would be better, if the name of Alfred Kelly, the chairman of the Harrison Central Committee of Ohio, were attached to the furged circular. The "IRR" was accordingly improved in this way, by these Van Buren worther, and the circular thus secretaly sent out! A pretty jest, indeed.

By the last Cincinnal Republican, we observe that some other good friend and supporter of Van Beren has made oath that about three months age, he heard General Harrsson say to some one on loard a steam.

nas made oath that about three months age, he heard Chennel Hartson asy to some one on loard a steam-post, that he (Harrison) was "an Abolitionist." As t is altogether impossible that General Harrison could ever have used that language, or any thing approach-ing it, since the memorable period of the Missouri question—when he voted for the admission of Missouri cithout restriction—it is to be presumed that this charge of shelitioning against the resolds expedit the innism against the people's candidate, is of abolitionism against the people's candidate, is also put farth in jest.

The slanders endorsed and circulated by Mr. Grundy, and nailed to the counter, as base issue, by the Cincinnati meeting on the 2d instant, were also, no doubt, put forth in jest.

A pretty idea of jesting these lacofocos have—very. But whether uttered in jest or in earnest, neither forgery, nor slander, nor yet false winces, will be allowed by THE PROPLES to weigh against the fair fame and honest revice of their candidate. It is the people, not himself, that have brought General Harrison out for this campaign; and desute the slanderous stersions of pagafather necessarily incurred, together with the party visationed by the presence of the enemy, rendered it absolutely necessary to sell, immediately after his death, all of his personal property of every description—so that Gen. Harrison received no negress from his father. At nineteen years of age he received a commission from Washington, and joined the army under Gen. Wayne, since which he has resided in the west. I do not believe that General Harrison ever owned a negro in his life. I do know, however, that he is no more an abolitionist than I am—that he secrificed his seat in congress to support southern rights, and that in consequence of his southern feelings he has actually been caricatured, in Ohio, leading a negro in chains; now, those things I knowe—and I know further, that if elected president, he will use his utmost efforts to give happiness and prosperity to this country—and at his death to leave behind him a name which generations yet to occme will love and admire.
