STATE OF LOUISIANA—Parish Court for the parish and city of New Orleans—I hereby certify that on July 11th, 1836, judgment was entered in this court in the suit of Mrs. Lord vs. her husband, in the words and figures following, to wit:—

No 8971—Catarina A. Newell wife of Jas. N. Lord, vs. James N. her husband—the plaintiff represents that her petition that she married with the defendant in this city, on the 26th of December, 1832; that at the time of her marriage she possessed property to the amount of one thousand dollars, which was disposed of by the defendant for his individual interest; and that the situation of the defendant's affairs is such as to induce her (the plaintiff) to believe that his estate may not be sufficient to meet her rights and claims—whereupon she prays to be separated of property from the defendant and for judgment against him for the said sum of one thousand dollars. The defendant by his answer admits the allegations of the petition, and consents to the separation of property.

Although from the provisions of the 2401 art. of the civil code, some doubt may exist with regard to granting the prayer of the plaintiff on the mere confession and consent of the defendant, still as the right of third parties can in no way be injured thereby,

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the parties plaintiff and defendant, be separated of property, and that the plaintiff recover from the defendant the sum of one thousand dollars and costs of suit.

Judgment recorded in judgment docket E—Page 140
Amount of judgment, $1000.
New Orleans, August 16th 1836.
Signed J. BERMUDEZ, Judge.
