Professor Tronchin visits Philadelphia with a view of making an engagement in that city as teacher of the English. Previous to our inviting Mr. Tuenchin to this Academy, I conversed with Professor Value and Professor Fsy, of New York, on the subject of his qualifications to teach the medern languages -Professor Value assured me that he was better qualified to teach the French language than any other instructor he was acquainted with in New York; and Professor Fay gave me an ac-count quite as satisfactory of his ability to teach the Spanish language. Besides these recom-mendations, Mr. Tronchin produced to our the Piano Forte by Hertz, Kalkbreaner, Ries, Board of Trustees, the most estimated to the Most set of the Most lity to teach the languages be prefinises. I mention these facts to give you a knowledge of the testimony we had of Mr. Trouchin's qualifications before we invited him to our institution: and I can cheerfully add, that the success of those pupils of surseminely who have been under his instruction, has entirely justified the high opinion of those who knew him best in New York.
