Congregational Club Yule Lunch Friday

The series of Christmas activities of the San Mateo Congregational church will begin Friday with the Congregational Community club's luncheon at 12:15 p. m. in Kloss hall. The Plymouth guild, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Thomas P. Tradewell, will hostess the luncheon.

A reading, "Let's Keep Christmas," will be given by Mrs. Byrtha Marshall, a member of the church who is known for her book review given for women's organizations of the Peninsula. The reading is from a sermon by the late Peter Marshall, with an introduction by Katherine Marshall.

Mrs. John Neukom will give the devotions. The American Association of University Women's chorus will furnish the music. The chorus will be under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Hudson, director of music for the church.

Mrs. Arnold Kickbush, CCC president, will preside at the luncheon. Members and friends of the church who are not contacted by the circles are asked to call the church office for reservations. Child care will be provided.

The CCC board will meet tomorrow at 10 a. m.

tenor Raymond Manton will make his third appearance as guest soloist with the Orpheon male chorus at the group's Christmas concert December 9 at 8:15 p. m. at San Mateo High school auditorium. The leading opera and concert stage singer will be accompanied by Don Jones. Cosponsors of the benefit concert are Hillsdale High school students and the Burlingame High school P.T.A. which will divide proceeds of the musical event to assist various school projects.

If the top crust on your pies doesn't brown the way you would like it to, try brushing the pastry with milk before it goes into the oven.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Edward Persons (Mona May Law) touch glasses in a wedding toast following recent nuptials at St. Dunstan's church. The bride is the daughter of the Walter B. Laws of Millbrae, and Philip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Persons of San Francisco.

December Wedding Date Set

Cresswell Chapin Cole of Atherton will take Rozella Boyd of Los Angeles, as his bride December 27 at rites in Beverly Hills. The couple's engagement was announced in May by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Walter Newlin Boyd of Los Angeles. They will live at Pensacola, Fla., where Cress, an ensign, is in navy flight training.

Rozella, the daughter of Mrs. Walter N. Boyd and the late Mr. Boyd, will be given in marriage by her uncle, Maurice Boyd. Martha Fargo, a Stanford classmate, will be maid of honor. Bridesmaids roles will be taken by Lenore Cole, the benedict's sister; Joan Addison, and Louise Lusier. Rozella's sister, Milana Boyd, will be a junior bridesmaid.

Cres is the son of Mrs. Roy Robinette of Atherton and the late Cresswell Cole. Mrs. Robinette will honor her future daughter-in-law at a tea Friday.

The prospective benedict graduated in June from Stanford, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary society.
