L'ABEILLE.

Journal officiel de l'Etat, du Conseil Général de la Nouvelle-Orléans, de la Première et de la Troisième Municipalité.

Imprimé par J. Bayon.

NOUVELLE-ORLEANS:
LUNDI MATIN, 27 MARS 1837.

Entr'autres nominations faites par le Président des Etats Unis, nous mentionnons avec plaisir celle de notre concitoyen, Edmond J. Forstall, comme vice-consul par l'Hôtel des Monnaies établie à la Nouvelle Orléans.

NOUVELLES LOCALES.

Messrs. A. Grolhe, F. Correjolles et Gaston Brusle, ont été nommés, par le conseil de ville de la première municipalité, directeurs de la compagnie du Théâtre d'Orléans.

—On vol des plus hardis a été commis dans la soirée de jeudi dernier, entre 9 et 10 heures, sur la personne de M. E. M. Perry. Cinq individus armés de poignards et de bâtons à lance, et qu'il a pris pour des américains, l'ont soudainement environné, dans la rue St. Philippe entre les rues Bourgogne et Remparts, lui ont enlevé par la violence la montre qu'il portait sur lui.

Nous supposons qu'un vol de cette nature engagera la police à faire toutes les démarches possibles pour en découvrir les auteurs; et que le conseil de ville de son côté mettra plus que jamais, d'après ce qui est constaté, la détermination d'établir des gardes d'ilote ou Watchman, d'après le système adopté par les principales villes du Nord et par la seconde Municipalité.

P. S. Nous apprenons avec plaisir que l'individu qui avait volé la clarinette de M. Kroll, mercredi dernier, a été reconnu samedi, en sortant du bureau du recorder pour être celui qui a commis le vol de la nuit.

☞La monnaie est d'or, cadran d'argent, façon Lépine, portant le No. 1195.

—Nos correspondances du Nord ne parlent pas du duel de M. Benton et de M. Walker, d'où nous sommes portés à conclure que la nouvelle est sans fondement.

—Les bruits qui ont circulé ces jours derniers au sujet de la faillite de la maison Joseph, de New-York paraissent être erronnés, car aucune mention n'en a été faite dans les dates du 15 et du 16, de cette ville. Le seul paragraphe que nous lisons au sujet de cette maison dans nos dates du 14 est celui qui annonce la cessation de l'office. La perte occasionnée par cet événement est évaluée à 20 ou 30 mille piastres.

NOUVELLES DU MEXIQUE.

La goélette Bonita, venue de Tampico, nous apporte plusieurs numéros d'un journal publié en français à Mexico: cette feuille, qui a pour titre l'Universel, nous a paru d'un grand mérite et est particulièrement propre à ceux qui sont mal au fait de toutes les difficultés actuelles et en butte une telle entreprise; le mérite n'en saurait être que très remarquable. Sans cesse en guerre contre les défiances de l'anarchie, toujours étrangère à peindre à répondre au cri public, et, pour peu qu'on réfléchisse veuille se prêter à une telle marche commentaire, il est sûr de donner pour à la vulnérabilité, et de succomber ou au tard sous les efforts des partis, ou sous le bon plaisir du gouvernement. Aussi, toutes nous semblent le plus adopté par l'Universel, qui semble se restreindre dans le cercle des questions et des entrants. Mais, chose des plus rare et de pure invention; et ce journal nous paraît remarquable par l'intérêt et le bon goût de ses insertions. Sa partie politique, extraite des journaux du pays, fait suffisamment connaître les débats du congrès, et les faits les plus importans: d'où il résulte, non seulement pour les Français, mais pour les Mexicains eux mêmes, un avantage qu'ils ne rencontraient pas toujours dans leurs feuilles nationales.

Nous avons suivi, avec un vif intérêt, les discussions agitées dans les numéros de la fin de février, concernant le retour du général Santa Anna, et nous n'avons pas vu sans surprise la stupeur où ont été entretenus et à nuire en tout autre terrain plutôt la plupart des mexicains. La présence du général Santa Anna parmi eux, et à Santa Anna de vue reprendre en débarquant, la charge présidentiel, quand ainsi changea la constitution, a donné lieu à de nombreux discours: et le bruit en a été tel, qu'il a suffisant pour la résoudre, m'a trouvé au Congrès du Mexique, au congrès constituant, que quelques voix qui aient osé déclarer qu'une nouvelle élection était nécessaire dans un nouvel état de choses.

La question concernant les traités Texas, tant au Texas qu'à Washington, a été considérée par les plus hardis comme une nécessité à laquelle le général avait dû céder pour sauver sa tête ou sa liberté et, comme le devant influer en rien sur l'opinion favorable que commande ce qui a toujours rendu à la patrie ses plus grands services.

La commission chargée de faire un rapport sur la proposition de Don Carlos Bustamente, relativement aux mesures à prendre envers le général Santa Anna, a présenté un projet dont on tient à s'assurer le texte de son arrivée, un compte exact des incidents du voyage à Washington, et des engagements qu'il aurait pu contracter depuis l'affaire de San Jacinto, au détriment du territoire mexicain, des intérêts et de l'honneur de la nation. D'après ce projet, Santa Anna ne pourrait, avant une législature, reprendre un commandement civil ou militaire. Tout traité ou convention signé par lui à l'étranger serait considéré comme trappes de nullité.

Ce projet a donné lieu aux plus vives altercations, et le servilisme de plusieurs membres du congrès, en vers et ex plosions, s'est montré sans pudeur. L'un prétexte que Santa Anna, étant exposé pour la défense de l'union de 1824, et ayant depuis mérité un parti puissant, renversé ce qui précédait, pourrait bien plus facilement renverser celle de 1836, et qu'il ne serait pas prudent que ce général s'opposât pour le parti libéral refusait de reconnaître la nouvelle constitution."

Dans la séance du 15 février, un autre membre s'opposa à l'admission du projet, de peur de compromettre le gouvernement, et le nation entière, par une nouvelle révolution.

On est fatigué de voir tant de besogne et de la chute dans un coup d'état constituant: et l'on prétend, d'après de telles craintes, du rôle qui peut jouer au Mexique tout ambitieux qu'aura parler haut.

Un autre membre avoue que la réaction était plus de Carrillavista, opérée par Santa Anna, n'a obtenu l'appui de la nation que parce qu'elle voyait la réformation impuissante, et qu'être disposé à tout pour le moyen pour tuer de l'abime de l'enfer la nation mexicaine couchée sous le joug des Yorkins. "Que le but a été manqué et qu'il importe d'empêcher Santa Anna, comme on pourra, de faire de mal. D'après la nouvelle constitution, quand même découvrirait les droits de citoyen qu'il a perdus, il ne saurait être président avant bout ans; on a, pense-t-on qu'il gouvernera rapidement? Non sans doute: et il usera de tous les moyens pour opérer des révolutions; ce général fera tout le mal qu'il pourra, l'on doit y attendre!" Les opinions les plus tumultueuses sont ensuite émises; l'un dit qu'il faut de ses propres mains, et devant le congrès, hier Santa Anna de remonter au pouvoir, des membres même de la commission s'exposent d'avoir parlé contre lui; enfin, s'écrie l'un d'eux, c'est au gouvernement à agir: Santa Anna viendra et s'il réclame l'autorité comme président, le gouvernement lui répondra, s'il le peut, voici la constitution, en vertu de quoi votre autorité a cessé; et vous avez perdu vos droits de citoyen! Mais, si le général Santa Anna se met à la tête du parti libéral, il renversera tout ce qui existe aujourd'hui: la constitution, les décrets, les lois ne lui servirent à rien, parce que la force l'emporte sur tout!"

Les séances du 16 et du 17 février ont donné lieu à de nouvelles discussions; et enfin M. Pacheco Leal a reproché au congrès un ingratitude envers Santa Anna, et l'a vivement blâmé de lui refuser de reprendre la présidence, et de tenir envers lui une conduite aussi injuste qu'impolitique; on finit le premier article du projet demandant compte au général de ses traités et de leurs motifs a passé à une majorité de 40 voix contre 34. Dans la séance du 18 février, l'article 3e qui prescrit au gouvernement de soumettre au congrès ce compte rendu, ne peut être discuté faute de quorum, mais il finit par être adopté par 38 voix contre 27.

Le 2e article qui exigeait la réhabilitation du général Santa Anna pour reprendre un commandement civil ou militaire est rejeté par 34 contre 31, et celui qui déclarait la nullité de toute transaction faite par le général Santa Anna au sujet du Texas est adopté.

On peut juger, par ces détails, de la crainte qu'inspirait au congrès l'arrivée du retour de Santa Anna, et l'es
