THOMAS TANACEA, for the cure of scrofula, or king's evil, decided cancers, syphilitic and mercurial diseases, particularly ulcers and painful affections of the bones, joints and throat, and especially inherent dyscrasy or constitutional abscesses; also for rheumatism, sciatica or hip gout, fever sores or internal abscesses; asthma, scald head, scrivy, biles, chronic sore eyes, dry ringworm, cutaneous diseases, chronic catarrh and headache, from particular causes; pains in the stomach and dyspepsia, proceeding from viscious affections of the liver, chronic inflammation of the kidneys and general debility, caused by a torpid action of the system, or by unskilful or improper medicines or removing those constitutions which have been broken down by injudicious treatment or juvenile irregularities. In general terms, it is recommended for all those diseases which arise from impurities of the blood or ejection of the humors of whatever form or kind.

The proprietor of this valuable medicine acquired his knowledge of its ingredients from a long residence among the aborigines of this country, and it is a selection from the most approved and successful medicines which they narrate. It is offered to the public by the proprietor with the confidence that he is placing within their reach a remedy capable of relieving many of his afflicted fellow beings who are suffering under various chronic and obstinate complaints to which he is applicable, for which no other means of relief are in many instances in their power, and in many others, by enabling them once more to health and happiness. This is not offered as a common remedy that may put chance for restoring to health, but as one that will in most cases, when all the usual remedies fail. This it has done repeatedly, and this is the reputation it has obtained wherever it has been introduced.

This medicine has been found highly useful in many ambiguous diseases not here specified, and it has been used with wonderful success a spring and fall purifier by those who are subject to various complaints, and whose constitution requires invigorating. Whenever a diet drink is necessary, this panacea, taken in usual doses, will answer all its purposes in much less time, at less expense, and in a far more agreeable manner than the common diet drink.

The following certificate, out of hundreds similar which might be produced, are given to show the effect of the Indian's panacea in the various complaints above mentioned, and also to exhibit in the most satisfactory manner, its superiority over other similar preparations:
