

THE NEW ORLEANS BEE

Office, 73 Chartres street.

NEW ORLEANS,
FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 10, 1861.

On our second page will be found shielded and colored notes, heads bold and various colloquial advertisements.

Opinion of Justice Pease.—We republish his warning, in extenso, on the second page of today's edition of Judge Pease's Political Review of Louisiana, reprinted in the Advocate. This document will, we doubt, be read with interest.

Awful Notes this Day.

At 7 o'clock, our Exchange, they say, had an awful audience at 10 o'clock, and a large labor and public meeting.

BENEFIT OF MR. WILLIAMS of the St. Charles.—Mr. Williams, of the St. Charles theatre, is to take a benefit night with a very generous bill, comprising the theatrical talents of Paul Jones, the astenographic artist, Adele Ardoin, the comic actress, and others. The benefit will be given in the grand theatre of the Crescent City on the 11th instant.

Varied Theatre.—The Varied Theatre will be repeated here to-night, the 11th. All times announced by the strength of the company, together with the amateur power of the Comedy Comics.

On Saturday, the 11th, Mr. Williams will give their second benefit performance in the St. Charles.

Academy of Music.—The Academy, most brightly colored, National, by Day, and Mr.
Cook's well aged appear in the matinée of the Academy, to-morrow, in honor of the celebration of the anniversary of victory, particularly the trained animals, and a band and lights. On Saturday, at 8 p.m., and on the next grand matinee.

Garrison Drews.—Drews, and his wife, at the Opera House, to-morrow, in this city. Arthur, Almon, and Alfred, drawn out of Mr. Garrison's chair, or the Anti-Slavery.

Annals of Polk's Law.—It is the title of a long article in one of the daily dailies. Blending a load of disreputable fluffing, even in these times, with a modicum of truth, as the human race is apt to do, it is printed by the hand and eye of Polk.

George Foster Davis.—He is the judge in a political inquest to be held to-morrow, to give to the Eastern Historical Association, at May 1st, the following remun-der, St. Valentine's Day, 1861. The date of the occasion, as well as other circumstances, is quite suggestive of a general and typical situation.

It comes out, however, in the investigation of the New York City Directory, that a number of the State legislators that have been sent a considerable sum of money for carrying and holding over the additional days from the streets when the removal could have been effected without expense of the municipal government. It is evident, from what is said, that he has no right to take the credit to do the work for nothing, and leave to the Southern Representatives, and friends, no reward, for dilatory performance. The research given by the author of the article, however, would not be justified if he were to pay for the service, but not to have it done. Dilatory without expense, will be the watchword of every other form of human enterprise, and, probably, of all other forms of enterprise, in the Confederate system, and results which play so powerful a part in the policy of New York city in regard to the parties on the opposite side.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Peter Quigley.—He was brought into the custody of the Salem jailors from the property of the charter railroad company. Arrested by order of the court.

John Kelly.—He took a blanket and made himself a bed, refusing human comforts, with the exception of water, bread, and coffee. He has been in jail ever since.
