A PROCLAMATION. E. D. WHITE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.

To all persons to whom these presents may come, greeting:

WHEREAS due proof has been made before me, by the oath of Archibald Firth, one of the Commissioners of insolvents on the part of the Governor and that said Archibald Firth has fled from justice in the Parish of New Orleans, and that a warrant for his arrest and apprehension has been issued by me, and that the said Archibald Firth is not to be found within the limits of the State of Louisiana, after diligent search and inquiry made for him by the sheriff of the parish of New Orleans, to whom the said warrant was directed, and whereas the said Archibald Firth has absconded from his creditors, and has refused to appear before the said Commissioners of insolvents, to be examined touching his property and effects, and to make a full and true surrender thereof for the benefit of his creditors, as required by the act of the Legislature of this State, entitled "An act for the relief of insolvent debtors," passed on the 17th day of March, 1828, and the several acts amendatory thereof, and whereas the said Archibald Firth has left property within the State of Louisiana, liable to be seized and sold for the payment of his debts, and has left debts due him which are liable to be attached for the payment of his debts, and whereas the said Archibald Firth
