THE BEE. PRINTED DAILY, BY F. DELAUP. St. Peter-Street, between Bourbon & Royal. FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1828. ADMINISTRATION TICKET. Domestic Manufactures—Internal Improvements. ADAMS BROTHERS. JAMES FILLERE, of St. Bernard, ANDRELE BLANC, of Assumption, C. BUSHNELL, of East Baton Rouge, N. DEULOUP, of St. Martin, B. VARRIS, of Natchitoches.

Correspondence between a committee of the Weavers of Baltimore, and the President of the United States. Baltimore, July 11th, 1828. To His Excellency John Quincy Adams, President of the United States. Sir,—We have the honor, on behalf of the Weavers of Baltimore, and as a testimony of their profound sense of your public virtue, and exalted talents, to present you a specimen of domestic goods, manufactured in the streets of this city, and in the ranks of the Civic Procession which took place here on the Fourth of July. As that day was signalized by the commencement of a work which deeply concerns the fortunes of our city, it is with great gratification that we observe the wishes which, on a late like occasion, you expressed for the success of the enterprise. Having presented a part of the same specimen of domestic industry to the venerable Carroll, the surviving signer of the instrument which declared our Independence, we thought the remainder would be a suitable compliment to one who had, on so many occasions, sustained our Public Rights, with such consummate knowledge and ability.

With just sentiments of respect for your private virtues, no less than for your probity and prudence in the administration of the first office in the gift of a free people, We have the honor to be, your very obedient servants, JONATHAN NESBIT, Senr. WILLIAM KNOX. On behalf of the Weavers of Baltimore. Washington, July 12th 1828. Messrs. Jonathan Nesbit, Senr. and William Knox.

Sir,—I have this day received your obliging letter, with the handsome specimen of domestic goods, manufactured in the streets of your city, and in the ranks of the Civic Procession on the fourth instant, for which I tender to you, and pray you to present to the Weavers of Baltimore, my grateful acknowledgments.

Among the cities of the Union, Baltimore has long been distinguished as a like for the adventurous spirit of commercial enterprise, and for that lofty sentiment of National Independence which cherishes internal improvement, and domestic industry. Of this, the great work commenced on the fourth instant is a memorable example. Independence and Union are the ends, Internal Improvement and Domestic Industry the means of the American Patriot; and so inseparably are they connected together, that it is impossible, but by the pursuit and promotion of the one, to secure and perpetuate the other.

My good wishes and my earnest prayers are therefore for the success of the great undertaking upon which you have commenced with so much spirit and enthusiasm. I have read with great interest the account of your procession, and have shared in your joy, that the last Patriarch of our Revolution, the sole surviving signer of the great charter of Freedom, has been spared to hallow your enterprise to the posterity as well as the future, and with the same hand that signed the Declaration, has first opened the ground for your link of lasting Union between the Atlantic and the West.

With the thanks, accept and tender to the Weavers of Baltimore the salutation, of your and their friend and fellow citizen, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

From the Boston Bulletin. From Malta—We have been favored by Mr Topliff with the loan of a file of Malta papers to the 14th of May, to receive at Merchants' Hall by the brig Camilla.

We find in the last paper the following abstract of the principal stipulations of a decree lately issued by Count Capo d'Istria, for the regulation of merchant vessels. This Document followed the promulgation of a decree for the government of the blockading forces, which was republished in this paper on the 7th instant.

Merchant vessels are divided into two classes: the first comprising vessels of 15 tons and upwards, the second those under 15 tons. The property must be proved by a document certified by the Primates of the Island where the vessel shall have been acquired. A transfer of property cannot take place under certain formalities by which the true proprietors will always be known to the Government. Boats of the second class are prohibited from having any guns. With respect to arms, they are not to carry only in proportion to the number of the crew, and is expressly required that they shall be deposited under the direct surveillance of the Captain. Vessels of the first class are not allowed guns unless they exceed twenty-five tons burthen.

Fishing boats are not allowed more than six hands and no arms. Crews must be composed of at least three-fourths Greeks.

No boat or vessel can receive a passenger on board, unless he be furnished with a passport.

Every vessel sailing without regular papers will be confiscated; and the captain and crew will be treated as pirates.

The punishment of death will follow the infractions of the principal of these articles.

The Decree was to take effect on the first of May and is signed by the Count Capo d'Istria.

Nantucket Sheep Shearing.—The number of Sheep assembled at the late shearing in Nantucket was about 12,000. The wool is worth from 20 to 25 cents a pound.

New Cotton!!!—We have frequently had occasion to call the attention of our readers to Cotton plants which continued alive the last winter and put out afresh in the spring—giving promise of an early harvest. A sample of new Cotton, the production of similar plants, has been politely sent us by Mr. Shad. It contains the several qualities of what is considered good Cotton—whiteness, fineness, and length of staple. The seed are as well clothed as any Cotton we have ever seen of the kind denominated Sea Island, or Black-seed. [Savannah, Geo. July 26th.]

Intolerance.—The decision of the Supreme Court of Errors of Connecticut, by which they refused to administer the oath to a witness who did not believe in a state of rewards and punishments after death, but who believed that mankind received punishment for their sins in this world, has called forth remarks of disapprobation from almost every quarter. The New England Review, a Connecticut periodical, has undertaken to show the absurdity of this decision, as also its incompatibility with the first principles of our institutions. Good will come out of this decision, however, as it will probably lead to the passage of a law to prevent the judiciary from acting as inquisitors upon men's religious belief, when summoned as witnesses.—Patriot.

From English papers. Entomology.—There is in Livonia a rare insect, which is met with only in the most northern counties, and the very existence of which has for a long time been doubted. It is the furia infernalis, described by Linnaeus in the new Memoirs of the Academy of Upsal. This insect is so small it is very difficult to distinguish it with the naked eye. In warm weather, it falls upon persons from the air, and its bite produces a swelling which becomes mortal unless prompt remedies be applied. During the hay harvest, other insect, called megar, are of the size of a grain of sand. At sunset they appear in great numbers, descend in a perpendicular line, pierce the strongest linen, and cause an itching with pustules, which become dangerous if scratched. They occasion swellings in the throats of cattle which inhale them, and die unless speedily assisted. The cure consist in a fumigation of flax, producing a violent cough.

There has been exhibited in Glasgow, a very unusual spectacle indeed several Chinese Ladies! they are represented as of rank in their own country, which is rather doubtful—but have at all events the distinguishing marks of Chinese origin and rank. Their feet are not much more than three inches long! and their nails about the same length.—It must have been some such little footed fairies, designated by an inspired writer, as "keepers at home, minding their own business, not busy bodies, going from house to house." It is a little singular they should have been induced to visit a European city and submit to so public an exposure.

Mr. Nimmo, the engineer, has had occasion to sink through the substratum on the shore at Liverpool, in several places, where he has not only met with the clearest evidence of ploughed fields, forests, bogs, &c. beneath the surface of the water, but that the sea has also invaded the territories of the dead, as well as the living. A grave-yard, if not a church-yard, has been discovered about 150 of 200 yards below the flow of the tide, nearly opposite the Mockbeggar Light house.

Although the docks of Liverpool occupy about sixty acres of ground, the accommodation for shipping is not yet found adequate to the vast and still increasing trade of the Mersey. A suite of new docks is about to be commenced on the Cheshire side of the river.

The Lord High Admiral of England has issued a long General order, giving a description of the new Naval Uniform.

There is no longer any difference of full dress or undress, except in the particular of gold lace, the same width as that worn on the coat, down the outside seam of the trowsers. All officers are permitted to wear, as an undress, at sea a round blue jacket without skirts, and a round black hat. Patterns of each suit to be seen at the offices of the several Port Admirals. After the 1st of January, 1829, no deviation whatsoever from the order will be permitted.

There was lately found in a fish-pond at Abingdon, belonging to Mr. Tomkins, a tea-canister full of guineas. Fifteen years ago, the coachman to Mr. Tomkins' father robbed him of 800 guineas, for which he was committed to goal, but escaped, and has never since been heard of. This is supposed to be a part of the money.

A volatile young man was introduced to a gentleman by his father for the gentleman's patronage; the youths observations not having the solidity of sixty about them he was objected to. "Aye," said the old man, "the boy, Sir, is like a pot of good beer; though there is a good deal of froth at top, what's underneath is none the worse for it."

The celebrated Dick Ridgely once applied at the Post office, to know why some his franks had been charged. The answer was, "We supposed Sir, they were not your writing. The hand is not the same. Why, not precisely the same; but the truth is happened to be a little tipsy, when I wrote them." "Then, Sir, will you be so good as to write drunk, when you make free."

NOTICE. WHEREAS application has been made to me praying that the bond of four thousand dollars subscribed on the 22d day of February, 1827, by Hudson Tabor and Joseph Bobichand, as securities of Louis Talbot, Sheriff of the Parish of Lafourche Interior; and also that the bond of four thousand dollars entered into by Hudson Tabor on the 6th day of June, 1827, for the faithful performance of the duties of sheriff of said Parish, and the special mortgage to secure the payment of said sum, executed by said Hudson Tabor, and affecting a tract of Land or plantation of three arpents front, more or less by forty in depth, situated in said Parish, on the left bank of the Bayou Lafourche, be raised and annulled.

Notice is hereby given to all persons concerned, to file in writing, in the Office of the Secretary of State, within ninety days from the last publication hereof, the reasons, if any they have; why the said bonds and mortgages should not be raised and annulled. Given under my hand and the Seal of the State, at New-Orleans, the twenty-first day of August, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, and in the fifty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America. (Signed) H. JOHNSON, Governor of the State of Louisiana. By the Governor, (Signed) F. DUNN, Secretary of State. aug 22

NOTICE. THE undersigned having established his residence in the Parish of Iberville, two or three miles above Bayou Plaquemine, and on the same side, follows the practice of his profession, and will regularly attend the District and Parish Courts of East and West Baton Rouge, Pointe Coupée, St. Jacques, Ascension and other parts of Lafourche Interior. In taking charge of the causes which may be entrusted to him, the undersigned will always agree with his clients (when they will make known their wishes so to do), to conduct them himself without an increase of salary, till the appeal inclusively, if the case require it. A practice of nearly twenty years, as well in New-Orleans, as in the above mentioned Parishes, seem to dispense the undersigned with the necessity of declaring that his zeal, activity, and attention to business will leave nothing to be wished for by his clients for the success of the causes which may be entrusted to him.

The undersigned has left to his fellow-members of the bar, Mr. P. Boulé, residing in New-Orleans, and partner of Mr. Louis Moreau Lislet, the unfinished business of his office, a list of which he delivered to him. The talents of Mr. Boulé, and of Mr. Moreau Lislet, his partner, are the best security to be wished for that those causes will be conducted to the last in a suitable manner. Besides, the undersigned, whenever his causes in appeal will call him to New-Orleans, will unite his care to those of those gentlemen. All persons in New-Orleans, having communications to forward to the undersigned may do it with more celerity by giving them to his son Adolphe Cuvillier, Clerk in the office of the Supreme Court's Clerk, residing at No. 47 St. Peter street, opposite the Parish Jail. CUVILLIER. Iberville, August 8, 1828.—[aug. 18]

RUNAWAY. FROM the undersigned's house on the 26th July last, in the morning. A negro woman named AGNES, aged about 34 years, about 5 feet high, big lips, big nose and eyes,—has a front tooth missing, an old scar of about four inches on her neck, and is a creole of the Plantation of Mr. Che Polot, formerly a planter of the parish of Assumption. The said negress was on the bank of the river, about 9 o'clock, a. m. clearing a fish, and it was not until about half past ten o'clock, that her absence was noticed—a man known by the name of Chabec, was seen passing by in a pirogue at that time. The said negress having manifested several times, the preceding days, her wish to go to town, and the fruitless search made after her that, and the two following days, to ascertain whether she had fallen into the river, leaves no room to doubt but that she has seized the opportunity of the above mentioned pirogue to runaway. Any person who can give any information respecting the said negress, is requested to do so by leaving a note at No 47 St. Peter-st. at Mad. of don Orso's house, or directing it to the undersigned, at his plantation, Bayou Plaquemine. CUVILLIER. Iberville, August 8, 1828.—[Aug 18.]
