daily emanate from the jealous.

What, we would ask, can be a stronger proof of its utility, than its success in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia Alms House, and the Philadelphia and New-York Penitentiaries, and in other public institutions alike serviceable, where the eminent skill which presides over them had been exhausted in vain. "These facts speak trumpet longued'-and cannot be gainsaid. It is much to be lamented that there are so many sporious mixtures manufactured in imitation of this invaluable medecine, some assum ing to possess equal virtue, and vended under the same titles some have gone to the daring extremity of refilling the old bottles with the la bels on; whilst others, to filch the public, hav published for their benefit the very certificut which the proprietor of the Genuine Gathelica had obtained from those who were cured by hi medicine, of various distressing diseases.

Thus has he been assailed in every form by envy, jealousy and fraud; and thereby prevented extending the usefulness of this great and long wished for remody.
