NEW ORLEANS BEE.
OFFICIAL STATE PAPER.
BY BULLETIN, MARCH 18, 1861.
HENRY JOHNSON,
Editor of the Bee.

WHY STATE CONVENTION.
The meeting of the Convention held an informal meeting yesterday, in the gentlemen's apartment of St. Charles Hotel. Dr. Brassier was present at the chair. After some conversation, they adjourned to meet this day at 11 o'clock a. m. in the Hall of the House of Representatives, in order to afford those members of the Convention who desire to participate an opportunity of participating in their proceedings.

PUBLIC LANDS.
We published on our Saturday's paper, the report of Mr. Downs, the chairman of the committee to whom was referred the resolution of several States upon the "Public Domain." It is amazing that a paper of this kind should be published in a newspaper, and should have been so long in the hands of the editors. It is a pity that the public should be deprived of the information which it contains, and that the committee should have been so long in making their report. It is a pity that the public should be deprived of the information which it contains, and that the committee should have been so long in making their report.

LEGISLATURE OF LOUISIANA.
REPORT.
Mr. Waggoner, against to previous notice, made a resolution proposing the adjournment of the legislature to the city of New Orleans. He expressed his regret that he was unable to attend the session of the legislature, and expressed his confidence in the wisdom of the legislature. He also expressed his confidence in the wisdom of the legislature, and

FANNY FLEISLER.
We predict the increasing popularity of Fanny Fleisler, the belle of the season. Her beauty, her grace, her intelligence, and her talents, have attracted the attention of the public, and she has become the favorite of the fair sex. Her performances at the theatre, and her appearances in society, have been universally admired, and she has become the object of general admiration.
