CITY AND STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

John Dantonio, one of the best-known detectives in the United States, retired from the local police department Tuesday, after having been in active service twenty-one years and ten months. Detective Dantonio gave ill health as his reason for retiring.

Six buildings belonging to the estate of J. S. Brady were destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning at Waggaman. The flames were supposed to have been of incendiary origin. A negro, Alfred Victor, was taken into custody and is being held pending results of an investigation now being made by Sheriff Marrero. The loss is estimated at $26,000.

Believing a message from home received on Christmas morning will go a long way in cheering American soldiers abroad, Postmaster Janvier has perfected arrangements so that all packages placed in his care at the proper time will reach their destination on Christmas Day.

As an adjunct to its purchase of property just above the old Ursuline Convent place, the Dock Board has bought one-half square of ground belonging to the Philadelphia Quartz Company. There is a small plant on the property and the price paid by the Dock Board was between $27,000 and $28,000.

The first demonstration agent in Orleans parish has opened an office in the city hall and has begun his work. Lewis H. Martin, appointed to the post, is one of the few natives in the service in Louisiana, and although young in the work has already won an enviable record as a leader in co-operation.

With a favorable report from Commissioner Stone the ordinance of Mayor Behrman to abolish the restricted district was adopted by the council Tuesday. It provides that within thirty days from its adoption there shall be no more houses of vice anywhere in the city.

Declaring the master of the vessel had agreed to pay salvage of $12,000 for towing his ship to New Orleans, the Munalbro Steamship Corporation Tuesday instituted libel proceedings in the United States District Court against the steam schooner Olympic.

President Walmsley reported to the Board of Liquidation of the City Debt Tuesday that in accordance with authority given him by the board he had purchased five public improvement bonds out of the proceeds of the New Orleans waterworks fund and fifteen bonds from interest accrued from unclaimed funds. The five bonds were purchased at a cost of $4,711.81 and the fifteen at a cost of $14,198.55. The purchase reduced the bonded debt of the city $20,000.

Among the matters discussed at the meeting Wednesday of the committee in charge of the New Orleans bi-centennial to be celebrated here in February, and also in a preliminary way October 24, were details of ceremonies in connection with the changing of the name of City Park to Bienville Park, the adoption of a city flag and steps for having a medal struck to celebrate the bi-centennial.

Mrs. Kate Domino has entered suit in the Civil District Court against H. Finger for $2,500 damages on behalf of her minor son, Salvadore Domino. She alleges that while her son was crossing Napoleon avenue at Constance street, September 16, 1917, he was struck by the automobile of Mr. Finger, hurled to the ground, a finger broken, and he received painful injuries about the body.

Harold Sangy, 6 years old, 541 Octavia street was taken to the Charity Hospital early Wednesday where it was found he had developed tetanus. It is said that the lad was at play in the streets in his neighborhood about two weeks ago, when he stepped on a nail.

Announcement of the appointment of John Graham O'Kelley as coal administrator for the state of Louisiana by President Wilson, was received in New Orleans Wednesday. At the same time the appointment of C. L. Townes of Minter City, Miss., as coal administrator for that state, also was given out.

According to the report of Dr. W. H. Robin to the City Board of Health at its meeting Wednesday the normal diphtheria condition is being combatted successfully. There were no deaths in September and only 239 cases reported.
