An individual, suspected to be the compact of those worthies, was acrested yesterday on the very spot where the corress was undergoing examination. Had such daring, we would ask a parallel in any city of the union? It is imperatively necessary that our sauscipal authorities should name of the council. Until that take place, would it not be advisable that the proper authorities should refer to prevent them from doing the same against citizens, who might be inclined to resist any aggression? Are we to peril limb and life in its defence?

A nucleus of eight individuals, came under the hands of the police yesterday aftermeen. In the possession of one of them, was found a quantity of bills of the Marble Companies from the spars and other materials picked up. The first measure ten inches in diameter.

Letters from New York also state that the tri-sail mast originally made for the ship, was but five and a half inches at the lower and, where it rested on an iron trace.

A negro, the slave of Mr. Bionvoun, has been arreon a charge of attempting to rob the City Bank; we havnot been able to obtain any information on his ac-mons. The question between the bill and O'Connell's proposition, to organize the domestic government of Ireland on a footing similar to that of our state governments, is fairly at issue. The sanction of either of the measures mest kill the other. In the spirit of O'Connell's proposition, the British executive is still to be the paramount authority. Up to the close of the last contury, Ireland had a local legislature, which secured the rights and liberties of the island; it was not until the intrigues of the tory party, erged only Castlereagh, had prevailed, that the Irish legis. lature was taken away and morged into that of the United Kingdom. Well has a great man said that "it will be time for I cland to weep for the death of Castlerengh, when they shall have ceased to money for his birth "

LONDON, Feb. 24.

Ever since the announcement of the contemplated coar-cive measures, this metropolis has been in a state of unu-sual printion. Yesterday a moeting of the trade of tailors to petition for a repeal of the Union, took place at the Are-na. It was intended as the prelude to petitions from all the other trades in this topic, but now that essense has been alandoured, in the uncertaint weekly a coarse the dollars shall be, and the same indervoly appropriated out of any money in the treasury not of this kingdom. Yesterday also a seesting of the volunteers took place, but soon afterwards adjourned, the members deck ring that they could not trust themselves to speak or act on such an eventful crisis without further deliperation. They met again to-day. To-seferow a greatment general meeting of the citizens is stimmoned to take interested and the principal actors, and concert measures to avert the danger.
