STATE PRINTER. WTHE ENION—IT MUST BE PRESERVED." MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 14, 1888.

FOR GOVERNOR: J. B. DAWSON.

The large volume of legislative proceedings which have avoidably accumulated on our hands, excludes our acand quantum of matter for the general reader. We claim the indulgence of our advertising friends on the same ground. The haste and pressure, however, incident to so ensiderable an extension of our operations, will, we hope, shortly be obvised.

All the measures recommended by Governor Roman's measure, are doubtless of paramount interest to the State of Leasina,; but the vital question of education is inferior again. to none in point of importance. To speak of its influence in the ninecounth contury, and in a free country, is to advo-cate a night truism. Yet when we come to view it as a means or national prosperity and power; when we feel, however reluctantly, that its value has been overlooked; we cannot retrain from remainding our legislators that its extension is an imperative duty. The present is not the exclusive province of the law-maker; in the also legislate for posterity.

From the moment a human being enters upon existence we should train him upon those principles, and those only, which can fit him for the functions of rational life; and as from the hour of his birth, he partakes in the rights of citisens, from that hour we ought to prepare him for his subscquent duties a citizen. There are laws and institutions for mashepd: why should here not be laws and institutions, for those who are one day to claim their virile rights? In the ame way that no man should vindicate mere reason as the arbiter of his duties, just so we ought not exclusively to aanden the education of youth to the cares, to the prejudices, sometimes, of the authors of their life: the state, still more than their relatives, should supervise the fashioning of their minds; for they belong as much to their country as they do to their parents. In the common course of nature death may not allow a father to enjoy the fruits of his child's edueation; but the country at large, must sooner or later, ex-perience the good or fatal results of solid or imperfect instruction. Families dwindle away and disappear; but the Sabric of polity is indestructible.

We have frequently been astonished that men, such as contend against a doctrine, which goes to curtail the sum of human tubwledge and the aggregate of social happiness. Each winder that the growing generation haze not forfeith the patient all before the patients of curtail the sum of the patient passed in the country of the patient passed by to four on a subject, which has been voxed over and over again by our different excentives. If, as the governor justly remarks, more numbers will not allow us to exercise a marked influence as a state; let us hope, that the diffusion of knowledge will give scope for the attainment. But before that satternian period shall have arrived; many abuses must be uprooted—numberless deficiencies supplied. The priesthood of education—for the rearing of our children is a hallowed many any and the parish of St. Bernard, is less than in preceding years. By an examination of the general assessment roll, it will be proceived that the amount assessed and collected from the Parish of St. Bernard, is less than in preceding years. The Providence Journal contains the following, in addition to what had been heretofore published in regard to the mutiny on board the ship Ann & Hope:

mitiny on board the ship Ann & Hope:

It seems that on the ship's passage from the Island of Java to Canton, a number of the crew conspired together to murder capt. Page, and the first and second officer. The plot was to have been put into execution April 21st, when the ship was in the Straits of Banca. The plan was to call the second mate during his watch, to seize and throw him overboard, to keep the rest of the crew below, by securing the fore-hatch, then to go into the cabin and kill the captain and first and second officers; take possession of the ship, and divide the money supposed to be on board. But, happily, at the appliented time of action, the hearts of the bloody minded conspirators failed; and thus was providentially first and second and the supposed to be on board. at the appendict time of action, the hearts of the bloody minded conspirators failed; and thus was providentially frustrated a scheme which had been devised by an utterly unprovoked cruelty. After the arrival of the ship at Lintin, in a dispute between two of the crew, expressions were dropped, which led to the disclosure of the plot. Most opertunely the U.S. frigate Potomac was there at the saint time. Cantain Pages graning immediately on heard of the ime. Captain Page repaired immediately on board of the frigate, where he found the prompt and efficient said which the occasion required. An examination was instituted, and deposition taken, in the presence of Commodore Downes and his officers, which fully exposed the design of the plot, as already stated. Com. Downes received on beard of his own sup ave of the intended mutineers, and in their places, supplied captain Page with men from the Potomac. own ship five of the intended mutin

TREASURY DEPARTMENT. New-Orleans, January 10, 1933. To the Hon. ALEX. LABRANCHE.

Speaker of the House of Representatives. Sir:-In We have frequently been astonished that men, such as Mirabeau, in France, and de Campe, in Germany, should have the transport of their immense talents in opposition to the principles and utility of national education.—They were champions of popular rights; and popular instruction are one and indivisible. The heralds of despotick power may trumpet forth intellectual obscuration; but the patriot and the philanthropist will over contend against a doctrine, which goes to curtail the sum of human and before the content of the taxes in arrear for former years due by defaulters, the sum of $4,618.93 has been received.

Sin:—In conformity with law, I have the knoner to submit here with, an account of the receipts and expenditures of that the goociept from direct taxes it less than usual, the deficit is to be attributed to the derangement of business occaning of the season; this circumstance has also induced me to delay issuing executions against the collecting officers. If they do not account after a reasonable allowance of time, generally the content of the taxes in arrear for former years due by defaulters, the sum of $4,618.93 has been received.

The Minington shatned by the surgeties of R. S. Hamber of the conformity with law, I have the honor to submit our heads in very shame, at the descoration of your holy attributes; vanum est; inter provere cathedras! But it cannot—it shiftle not be in vain; the legislature of Louisiana will enquire into abuses, and destroy even to their last vestige. Never did that body contain men, more willing or more size it a benefit, rather than a curse, to the "expectancy of state." We shall again recur to a subject, which, it must be confessed, we cling to with some predilection.

LATEST FROM LONDON.

The Br. barque Julia, Capt. Grant, arrived at this port yesterday, from London, whence she sailed on the 15th, and from the Downs on the 18th Nov. We are indebted to the politeness of Capt. Grant, for the London G ardian and Public Ledger of the 15th.

The data from Portugal, contained in this paper, which time no further his.

The data from Portugal, contained in this paper, which time no further his. are to the 5th Nov. up to which time no further has. tilities had taken place between the forces of Don Pedro and Don Mignel.' An engagement was shortly expected to occur, however, as the latter, who takes command in person, is said to have arrived in the vicinity of Oporto, with a force of 40,000 men, part of which, it is stated, are but three leagues from that city. Don Pedro had addréssed a letter to Conde de Vills Flors; advising him of his intention of assuming the command of his army in person. The two brothers will be thus unnaturally engaged in personally seeking when so large an amount of obligation has been assumed 1831-Nov. Don Pedro had addresses a general street of assuming the command of his army in person. The two brothers will be thus unnaturally engaged in personally seeking each others life.

The Prussian army on the frontiers of Holland bad here increases from 35 to 50,000 men, and had taken a position between the Mense and the Rhine. These troops were supported by a reserve of 20,000 men.

The French government had officially announced to the source of the state at a time when so large as a mount of obligation has been assumed in favor of the new institution. It is a source of congratulation that it is within the resources of the state at a time when so large as a mount of obligation has been assumed in favor the nistitutions, at the aid of a small stemporary loan from institutions, already bound to grant it, which might even be dispensed with, should the Bank of Louisiana make a division offits surplus profits, in corroboration of these views, the statement of the affairs of the Bank of Louisiana issued in July last is annexed.

The attention of the Legislature is respectfully called to

The merchants of Amsterdam & Rotterdam have sent to the King of Holland a manorid in the form of a stalment of $490,600 of the loan obtained by the "Consoli-Protest, against the consequences which may result dated Association" which the state has guaranteed. It is to Holland by the blockade of the coasts by the French believed that the institution is fully prepared to meet its engagements.

positively dissolved on or about the 2d Desember.

Upwards of 460 persons have signed a petition to the King of Great Britain, praying him to use his good offices with he King of Russia, in behalf of the unfortunate Poles.

The loan to the Parish of St. Landry under the act of March 11, 1830, of which $7500 have been advanced, requains undiminished by any payments from the sources designated by the act. It is believed that nothing is to be expected from the "Plaquemine Navioration Countries of the Indicate of the Indicat quidation of that ioan; and if it is the intention of the Logislature, in pursuance of the terms on which the loan was made, to require its discharge from the Parish of St. Landry, further legislative provision is requisite directing the assession of that Parish to levy the additional tax necessary for its discharge.

The statements annexed will afford a complete explana-ment exhibits the amount received during the year 1532, added to the balance on hand on the 31st December 1931 to be $467,353 66, and the amount paid out to be $372,-343 39, leaving a balance in the treasury on the 31st of December 1932, of $95,010 29.
