

DAN OWENS (Born July 5, 1947) is an American actor, best known for acting in dozens of National and Regional TV commercials, Television, Films, Soap Opera and Stage.

PERSONAL LIFE:

Born in Amherst, Texas and grew up in Fort Worth, Texas. Dan graduated from Paschal High School in 1965. Fellow classmates in Show Business are T-Burnett, Sharon Garrison, and Dean Parks.

He has been married for 38 years to Frances E "Betty" Cehan Owens.

CAREER:

Dan began acting professionally in 1971. His first job was a National Magazine Ad. Through out his career he has done numerous magazine Ads and TV commercials. Dan has worked in Films, Episodic TV, Soap Operas, Stage, and Voice-Overs. Dan has primarily worked out of Hollywood and New York. Dan's recent work includes National TV Commercials and a Pilot for CBS.

FILMOGRAPHY:

Acting Roles:

WTF! Wow That's Funny! (2010, TV Pilot)
Still Holding On: The legend of Cadillac Jack (1998, TV Movie)
Walker, Texas Ranger (1996, TV)
Highway to Heaven (1984, TV)
Scorned and Swindled (1984, TV Movie)
Santa Barbara (1984, TV Daytime Soap Opera)
Lottery! (1984, TV)
A street Car Named Desire (1984, TV Movie)
After MASH (1983, TV Pilot)
CHiPs (1981, TV)
Mackintosh and T.J. (1975, Movie)
Race with the Devil (1975, Movie)
Sistemo l'America e torno (1974, Movie)
Book of Numbers (1973, Movie)

Voice Roles:

Wildside (1985, TV, 6 Episodes)
Porky's 3: Revenge (1985, Movie)
Fandango (1985 Movie)
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (1985, TV Movie)
The River Rat (1984, Movie)
Rhinestone (1984, Movie)
The River (1984, Movie)

EXTERNAL LINKS:

www.imdb.me/danowens

resumes.actorsaccess.com/danowens

www.tv.com/dan-owens/person/318160/summary.html