THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

The PROFES, as contradistinguished from "Party," should bear in mind the vital import-ance of the election of Judges which takes place thin day. If we do not misjudge their intel-ligence, their good sense and their patriction, they will, on the present occasion, take so heed whatever of narrow minded and absard up whatever of marrow minded and abserd ap-peals to them as partiasans, but mastern these candidates who seem to them best entitled to their suffrages, on the score of ability, experi-soce and integrity. It is should so berpens, as-in some carea it unquestionably will, that the groulouses who eighty the considerer of the coin unnuty, should have been previously selected by the Rump Convention of a portion of the Democratic party, let not that consideration de-ter the sober minded citizen from his duty. If

This is the first time that the Jadiciary are to be claime, by the people, shall it be asid that party rancor party predicted in has dictated wheir choice? Shall ineepaldo men be elevated to exalted and responsible station, because they are the mere lavorites of faction 7. Shall Loursians thus degrade the great principle of an elective Judiciary—fall into the monumerer and miserable intrigues of party, from which limitatispin, with an elective Judiciary course with her Constitution, has been so long happily exampt? We trust not. We hope indeed that, will be constituted to a Judiciary entrammeled by the fetters of party, independent of fix claims and assemptions,—a Judiciary chosen by the ps-ple, amenable only to the people—an lonest, indexible, capable Judiciary. Party prot has nothing in common with this question, and its intervention cannot be for good, and may be for evil. We cannot conceive a more distract by a rs above its spaces of action, nortal size axis at a series in a constituent at the constituent at the constituent and a constituent and the constituent in a constituent and the constituent and the constituent acts and a constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent and a constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent at the constituent and a constituent at the constituent

But we have and more than we intended, the we commenced this article. We have no patterner with the serfs of party, who cannot breath an appration or indulge a preference, without the sanction of a caceus. Heaven save the mark. These purblind politicians reduce verything to the nost isposlo of standards. They can see no merit in an angel, if he happens to be an opponent, and would facely that some glessus of groduces irradiated the blasted form of Li Cirkk hemself, if he were on their aide to politics.

Washington, May 8.

To the Gardiner case yesterday, Mr. Partridge was recalled and examined with regard to the copies of the wrining title obtained at the office of the Alcalbe of Lagain, Mas, and also respecting a map of the State of Guerciaro. Portions of his testimony were objected to, and the day was mostly consumed in argument.

Four nurse clerks were removed from the Third Auditor's office to day, viz. Jos. Kerslarr, of New York, D. N. Burr, of D. C. George Merr, of Va., and Lewis McCihec, of Alabama. The recent removals in this office mende avec red democratis.

The cylinder and corning mills of Swift & Davis, of Camden, (Me.) blow up at half an hour after midnight on Sunday, with about two bondred kegs of powder. No lives were lost. The damage is estimated at $2500. The mills were about three hundred feet apart, and the fire from the cylinder was probably communicated to the corning mill by the wind. The concussion was so great as to shake buildings, breek glass, and open doors in the village, about one mile distant; also, to extinguish four of the lights at Negro island lighthouse, distant about two miles.
